The Pastor's Story.

An Interesting Narrative Showing
What Comes to Skeptics Who Are Willing to Try.

The Rev. Mr. Creelman is one of the most popular clergymen in Worthington, Mass., to a reporter of the Northampton Gazette, he recently told the following interesting story :

"I am a Nova Scotian by birth, but came to Massachusetts and Worthington from York, Me., in May, 1889. I had been long in the pulpit, and interrupted service for many years had left me weak and worn out. In this condition I readily succumbed to the grip in February of 1890, and had a very hard time of it. After the grip left the rheumatism set in, and then, indeed, my cup of misery was full. The pain was constant day and night. No application, external or internal, lessened its force or gave me the slightest relief. During two years I got out of the house but little more than to walk from the parsonage to the church. At times the pain was so great that I had to recourse to morphine injections for relief. It was in October that I read of a person similarly afflicted, and of his recovery by the use of a medicine called Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I had no faith in being cured myself, as so many other remedies had failed, but like the drowning man grasping at the straw, I sent for a dozen boxes of the pills and began taking them as directed. I did not notice any improvement for some time, then the pain left so suddenly that I hardly know when or how. From that time on my condition improved rapidly. The rheumatic pain has left me entirely, and I can attend to my duties which I have not done before in two years."

The after effects of la grippe, rheumatism, and all troubles due to poor blood or shattered nerves, speedily yield to a fair treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. No one should suffer for an hour without giving this great remedy a trial. Sold by dealers or sent by mail postpaid, at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by addressing the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N. Y. Shun all imitations and substitutes.
