CANADA-U.S. RELATIONS

ACID RAIN

BACKGROUNDERS

Edmonton Journal Nov. 2/84

(Speech exerpt)

Exerpt from a speech by Fisheries Minister John Fraser to the North American Association for Environmental Education. Fraser says we must do what we can to stop acid rain and that the government is confident that in time the U.S. will join us in the work.

La Presse Nov. 3/84

(Jean Pelletier)

Whether the next President of the United States is Republican or Democrat doesn't matter as much to Canada as does who controls the Senate of the House of Representatives because the prickly issues between the two countries such as acid rain must be dealt with by those bodies.
