

B) Agriculture and Rural Development Department: Departments I and II

Responsible for identifying, preparing and evaluating projects and for supervising projects in progress in this sector.

C) Infrastructure and Industry: Departments I and II

These departments' responsibilities cover the same tasks as above, in their respective sectors.

4. Planning and Research Department

Responsible for carrying out studies, especially on questions of general policy and development, of interest to the Bank's member countries.

5. Co-operation Department

Its responsibility is mobilization of financial resources from bilateral and international sources for technical assistance and making the Bank's goals and activities internationally known.

6. Central Project Unit

Responsible for assisting the vice-chairman of operations in co-ordination of activities of the operational departments.

7. Other Services

- Financial Department
- Administrative Department
- Development Research Policy Department
- Training Centre