

and Thursdays. So I think Muslims should not be defensive and apologetic to recognize that this kind of act, especially in this kind of context, is in fact terrorism. You cannot give any justification or any religious basis for this kind of ruthless act.