

Bennett, Right Hon. R. B.—Con.Address in reply—Con.

mitted to house will advance interests and welfare of Canadian people; Canada should have been able to escape results of present world-wide depression, 58; revival of industry after tariff measures passed during short session of 1930; full time employment in cotton and woollen mills; stimulation of industrial life of country; no effort on part of prime minister to force his opinions on cabinet, 59; reasons for holding portfolio of Finance; indices of country's prosperity; taxation of people under Liberal regime; less taxation taken during last eight months than for any eight months in previous ten years; depreciated value of our purchasing power; marketing our western wheat, 60; increase in sales of Canadian wheat in Britain in last seven months; fall in price of wheat in British markets; competition with Russian wheat, 61; speeches at Imperial conference in October, 1930, 62; remarks of Mr. Scullin of Australia, and Mr. Forbes of New Zealand; Australia and New Zealand behind Canada; speeches of Mr. Havenga of South Africa and Mr. McGilligan of Irish Free State, 63; Sir Richard Squires of Newfoundland on Mr. Bennett's policy of imperial preference; quota basis for wheat requirements; concluding speeches at conference; Mr. Richard Jebb on Imperial conference, 64; attitude of Sir Wilfrid Laurier at 1902 conference, 65, 66; platitudes at imperial conferences of 1917, 1923 and 1926; putting the issue clearly before the conference; empire preference; working out a system of tariff preferences; presenting Canada's case before conference in seventeen minutes, 67; realizing the dream and the end aimed at by Sir Wilfrid Laurier in 1902; atmosphere of relations between British government and Canada; removal of cattle embargo, 68; problem of sale of Canada's wheat; endeavouring to implement pledges to Canadian people; Mr. J. G. Gardiner's speech before United Farmers of Manitoba, 69; taking action to prevent a panic in wheat; treaties with Australia and New Zealand under Liberal regime; raising of tariffs in Italy and France against Canadian wheat; "bargaining" at the Imperial conference; trade arrangements between Britain and Argentine, 70; bargaining the basis of Britain's trade agreements; Imperial conference meeting at adjourned session in Canada; welcoming full discussion of legislative measures; vaudeville effusions of Mr. Young during last session; government conscious of no neglect of duty or failure in devotion to the cause of Canada and the empire, 71

Bennett, Right Hon. R. B.—Con.Address in reply—Con.

Absence from chamber during debate on, references to, 290, 360, 777

Adjournment, of debate, 56

Amtdt. to amtdt., 776; vacillation of Mr. Mackenzie King; accepting the sub-amendment; duties of Prime Minister necessitate his absence from chamber during debate, 777; broadcasting exaggerated statements of western conditions throughout country; farmers in western Canada with bank accounts; giving precedence to debate on address precludes possibility of measures being introduced or policies declared, 778; new wealth produced and increase in number of automobiles registered in the three prairie provinces; amount of money collected in prairie provinces last year for gasoline and registration fees; speculation in larger sense the cause of present depression in western Canada, 779; Canadian money lost in Wall street; speech in 1928 on the speculative mania attacking people of Canada, 780; causes of wheat debacle of 1929-1930; entry of Russia into wheat market; unsoundness of artificial price-fixing; exports of wheat to United Kingdom in 1930 and 1931 compared, 781; increase in wheat exports to France; suggested agricultural credit corporation; arrangements with western provinces for seed grain for coming year, 782; references to prosperity in speech from throne of February, 1930 under Liberals, 783; immigration in 1930; effect of Unemployment Relief Act of 1930; sub-amendment of Mr. Gardiner, 784; the government not seeking to escape responsibility, 785