

Institute, hereinafter described). The following are to be for the use of his said wife during her natural life, that is to say: One of his best carriages, one of his best sleighs, a common sleigh, two of his best horses, two sets of harness,—the whole at her own choice; and also the plants in the conservatory: Provided, however, and should his said wife contract a second marriage, that then and in such case she shall forfeit all her rights and claims under this Will—the said Testator's intention being that she shall only enjoy the foregoing bequests so long only as she remains his widow.

The said Testator doth hereby give, devise and bequeath unto his sister, Catherine Ross, during her natural life, the sum of Fifty Pounds, current money of Canada, per annum.

The said Testator doth hereby give, devise and bequeath unto Eliza F. Ross, now residing at Ord, near Invergordon, Rossshire, Scotland, spinster, the sum of Twenty-five Pounds, current money of Canada, during her natural life, payable three months after the decease of the said Testator.

The said Testator doth hereby give, devise and bequeath unto his dear friend, Sophia Ross, eldest daughter of C. S. Ross, Cashier of the Commercial Bank of Canada, the sum of One Hundred Pounds, said current money to be paid to her as soon as possible after the said Testator's death.

The said Testator doth hereby give, devise and bequeath unto his dear friend, Aimey, second daughter of the said C. S. Ross, the sum of One Hundred Pounds, said current money to be paid to her as soon as possible after the said Testator's death.

The said Testator doth hereby give, devise and bequeath unto Irvin, eldest son of the said C. S. Ross, his gold repeater watch, diamond ring and guard, his seven fishing rods and tackle, and tin box with fishing gear, one double-barrel gun, by Dean & Bros., a Sharp's rifle, and a Colt's revolver. All the property herein given, devised and bequeathed to the said legatees, shall, as they respectively depart this life, revert to and merge into the estate of the said Testator, for the purposes hereinafter mentioned, with the exceptions of the donation above given to the children of his friend, the said C. S. Ross.

The said Testator hereby gives, devises and bequeaths the property on the south-eastern slope of the Mountain and fronting on the Côte des Neiges road, known as the "Trafalgar pro-
