

whose walls has waved twice the Union Jack (each time by conquest), the Fleur de Lis and the Stars and Stripes. Not far off is the scene of the battle of Fort George, where stood a lighthouse on our shores. Here too a century ago arose the spires of two churches soon to fall in conflagration, here too were Navy Hall and King's wharf and not far off the monument-crowned mountain. Where can you find a spot so fair or so historic ? *

* It has been suggested that in view of the collection in the rooms of the Historical Society having now become so large, the memorial take the shape of a building with tower attached, the building to be fire-proof, as so many precious historic relics are here gathered. It is intended to ask help from the Dominion and Provincial Governments, and circulars have been sent out to members of U. E. families asking advice and assistance.
