LITTLE WOMEN. The greatest story for girls ever written, it concerns four sisters whose amusing scrapes and experiences are vividly described.

LITTLE WOMEN WEDDED. This is a continuation of the lives of "Little Women," though soon we see "Little Women" changed into "Good Wives." This part of their lives is very vividly and pleasantly written.

LITTLE MEN. Jo, with her husband, sets up a school for poor boys, who get into the most glorious scrapes and make the book very amusing.

JO'S BOYS. This delightful book shows the "Little Men" when they grow up. Thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Bhaer they are successful and happy. It is a very entertaining tale.

UNDER THE LILACS. Ben and his dog run away from a circus and live with Bob and Betty. Ben is very adventurous, and his scrapes are related with all Miss Alcott's humour and sympathy.

EIGHT COUSINS. A little girl, Rose, goes to live with her aunts and seven boy cousins. Her guardian, Uncle Max, is a breezy sea captain, and they have some ripping times together.

ROSE IN BLOOM. The further story of Rose. The charming bud of a girl blooms out into a beautiful and lovable maiden. A very charming tale.

JACK AND JILL. A vivid portrayal of the home and school life of Jack and Jill, and their friends in a New England village. Jack and Jill have a gloriously happy time doing all manner of interesting things.

AN OLD-FASHIONED GIRL. A delightful study of a healthy country girl, who goes to stay with rich friends. Everybody learns to love her for her charm and unselfishness, and she proves to be a very helpful person.

AUNT JO'S SCRAP-BAG AND SHAWL-STRAPS. The Scrap-Bag contains a number of pretty stories, and Shawl-Straps is a delightful account of the run through Europe of a party of charming American girls.

SILVER PITCHERS. Eight stories in Miss Alcott's best vein: jolly girls and equally jolly boys, full of life and spirits and delightful to spend an evening with.
