

ONTARIO AUTOISTS FACE DIFFICULTY

Quebec Refuses Use of Roads to Unlicensed Chauffeurs.

PASS EXAMINATION TOO

Motor League Officials Ask Provincial Government to Act.

The Ontario Motor League and the provincial government are in conjunction with a rather peculiar situation with regard to the inter-provincial privileges of motorists.

This, apparently, Quebec is not willing to adopt, and in consequence perplexity arises, particularly in eastern Ontario, over the outcome.

Quebec, by a new list of regulations, requires every outside chauffeur to purchase a license and submit to a rigorous examination.

To attempt a solution of the difficulty, President Oliver Heszlewski, and Secretary G. Robertson, conferred with Hon. W. J. Hanna yesterday.

Mr. Hanna stated the facts of the case as he had become acquainted with them by the president of the Ottawa Valley Motor Association, and hoped that within a short time a satisfactory arrangement could be reached.

The difficult centres in the fact that Ontario chauffeurs are not at present required to pass an examination of any exacting nature.

One of the objects of the deputation was to seek the advice of the minister on the motor league setting a series of examinations for the chauffeurs of the province.

The sentiment in some parts of eastern Ontario over the action of Quebec is acute. Failing solution before long, it is suggested by some that the present reciprocity legislation be revoked because of Ontario conceding rights and receiving none.

Quebec chauffeurs must qualify in examinations, orally, by writing, and by demonstration, and the examiners are drawn from the staff of technical schools.

DESTROY ALTARS ALONG WAYSIDE

Chinese Discard the Old and Get New, Genuine Religion.

The following extracts from a letter just received from missionary Agnes Dickson, a Presbyterian in Hong Kong.

As to the appeal of the Chinese Government, for a day of prayer, and devotion to the motives that prompted the appeal Archdeacon Barnett, wisely said that whatever elements might have combined to produce the request, the people had a right to believe that their most merited prayer would bring blessing.

"Speaking of unity, a day was set apart in Hong Kong recently for prayer stations over all the churches, and the bishop preached a most helpful sermon on the subject. It was interesting to note that all denominations took part in the prayer services for China, held in the cathedral, the sermons being given by both Anglicans and non-conformists, almost 2000 being present.

"The student campaign conducted by Dr. Mott and Mr. Eddy, was wonderful. It resulted in the enrolment of 7057 students in bible study classes, pledged to daily prayer and reading the Word."

"In Canton two weeks ago, I learned that all the wayside altars had been destroyed by order, the work of breaking the images being done by criminals under the direction of guards. Moreover, all the images have been removed from the smaller temples, and are to be seen in the office of the minister of education. What will take their place? Many of the people interested in this iconoclastic movement are not Christians."

These extracts show that the change has come for China, and that the revolution may be violent and accompanied with much suffering, and that the time has come for concerted action on the part of Christians. Many things can wait, but the situation and opportunity in China will not wait.

The resolution adopted by the Presbyterian General Assembly, is in line and is opportunity with the proposal to unite Anglo-Saxon Christendom in concerted effort for China, as the immediate advance necessary to the winning of the world for Christ. Our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ."

PRESS WOMEN IN THE NEW WORLD

Party of One Hundred Writers Get a New Thrill Every Minute.

GO TO THE END OF STEEL

They Visit the Mountainous Country of B. C. and Are Overjoyed.

(BY STAFF REPORTER.) EDMONTON, June 17.—The feminist movement in Canada is taking a triumphant form. In other words, the itinerary of the Canadian Pacific Railway and the Grand Trunk Pacific, with all its glory, will all be attendant beauty of her train, nor Caesar on his laurel-leaved entry into Rome, nor Napoleon when proclaimed emperor, nor Wellington after Waterloo, nor one of the heroes of Henley, nor of the baseball field, ever approached the triumph of the travels of the Press Women of Canada, now the guests of our two greatest railways.

The gathering means so much. It is an aggregation of the women of Canada from city and country of almost every corner of our domain. If those who compose the party do not measure up to this in actual numbers, they do so by representation. There are really 108 in the party, but they represent the entire literary and artistic work and spirit of the women of Canada. Newspaper workers, magazine writers, makers of books, illustrators, poets—all are here. Even the art of publishing is represented, for the only woman publisher in the world, Mrs. Alice Harriman of New York, is a guest of our great Canadian railways.

The unsurpassed scenery of the country thru which we are traveling is one ground for the claim to an itinerary of unqualified magnificence. We are now on the return after having experienced the thrill of travel to the limit of things civilized. We have been to the "end of the steam" phase, and about in all directions, which means the termination of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, the point nearest the "end of the steam" call the north of the serpentine track which blazes the way for the great iron horses of commerce and traffic.

The Canadian Press Club traveled all one night and until 2 o'clock the following day, during which they covered 303 miles of fine new railway, and the most magnificent landscape conceivable, to reach their ultimate thule.

Another and altogether new world has opened to the majority. Some few before had seen the mountains, as modern traffic permitted, but not till now was there opportunity for seeing the wonderful things that lie between Edmonton and Tete Jaune Cache, or "Stop 49," not yet on the map, but which later will be set down as Hannington, B.C.

Quebec chemists pronounced good by even the experienced travelers amongst us, occasional tunnels and hope and there bridges, showing that not even nature here could bar the progress of commerce. Three years ago this part of the road was not yet begun. When the portion now building eastward from Prince Rupert and stretching out to the west, call the mountains, lately constructed line from Edmonton to Tete Jaune Cache, shall have accomplished its ardent desire, another continent will be opened up.

The question is often asked why so many foreigners are employed by the large circuses at the present time. In looking over the programs of the Barnum & Bailey show it is easily seen that the great majority of the performers are foreigners. It is because there is an extra attraction in the glamor of foreign names? The circus man is a rule must be, and the remainder of the family generally is, so that the circus performers of Europe usually have generations of European ancestry. The circus man in Europe has no ambition as a scholar, as a commercial man or as an industrial man—he knows and thinks only of the delight of his work, and of the money being placed in his pocket and kept there through his childhood and youth, is put into training as a circus performer, and this training is thorough and complete, and straightway the object of his life. There is only one polite form of education that the circus performer knows and that is an artistic performance, and he achieves that quality which naturally improves with the years of practice and performance.

This is but one message of the miles of mountains which form the walls of the delightful valley thru which the Grand Trunk Pacific train is now carrying us. Little construction camps are all along the line. The white tents of the press women and from among the trees, logs lie piled around, occasional trains of mules with their drivers are leveling the landscape, groups of men, shovelling, digging or laying stones, raise their heads from their work and then wave friendly hands in answer to those of the women in the passing train.

Nature makes the progress of the work a triumph, and man as represented by the officials of the Grand Trunk Pacific and of the Canadian Pacific, is doing the rest. If attention to every conceivable want that can be satisfied under the conditions of travel can be satisfied, then surely this is being done. First-class Pullmans, easy beds, a menu fit for princesses, the delicacies of the most famous cuisines of ice, fruits, cream and beautiful fresh bloom—roses and carnations—these are the things that are provided. The most alert and courteous waiters yet met are in attendance, and Mr. George Ham of the C.P.R., the chief of the publicity representative of his road, is our never-failing chaperone. "Everyone loves Mr. Ham," said one of his press girls this morning, "we don't mind how much he loves us all provided he doesn't love anyone else particular. No one could possibly do more than this popular pilot of the press women and his praises are sung at ever yturn. Equally solicitous for our welfare is Mr. Cy Warron, publicity representative of the G.T.P., and the courtesy of the road road to the women, who for outbourn what was expected, and for whom special changes and arrangements had to be made, is beyond any words of praise.

Another interesting member of the sterner sex traveling with us is Col. Rogers of Ottawa. Col. Rogers is head of the Jasper Parks Commission. Fourteen hundred square miles are reserved at the disposal of the secretary of the builders' exchange a week ago. It stated that on his return to the city he had understood the strike and he had immediately returned to his work and already progress in making roads, giving access to the different fishing points and other parts of the work are well advanced.

Music in the Wilds. At Tete Jaune Cache, the little town at the end of things, our party landed for an hour. Our photo was taken by an enterprising "photo artist" and several amateurs, and we invaded the little office, about half the size of a C.P.R. car, of the Stipendiary Magistrate, W. A. Joyett, and were in the midst of postoffice, legal, and other assorted paraphernalia, stood a little organ, the first in this part of the country. At our request, Mr. Joyett opened the instrument and accompanied the Women's Press Club in the National Anthem, probably the first time it was sung by a body of Women in this remote part of British Columbia. Stop 49 is a little town of thirty houses, each a little shack, and every one going business along some special line. Restaurants, provisions, maris, the barber's profession, and even the pool rooms, all are here. Groups of men are about and one gaily attired and another in a more modest and someone immediately names the Bella of Honolulu, wave us farewell as the train pulls out after its short stop.

The people of Edmonton are the cream of hosts and we are now returning for an auto drive about their picturesque city and other hospitality. Tonight we start for Calgary. M. L. HART

FOREIGN LABOR IN BIG CIRCUS

It Is the Very Best Obtainable, Say Barnum and Bailey.

By a vote which more than doubled that of his nearest opponent, Lt.-Col. W. A. Allan, was yesterday elected Mayor of Newmarket following the resignation on June 2 of seven members of the council as the result of the by-law authorizing the town council to enter into an agreement with Toronto and York Radial Railway for the purchase of power. Col. Allan, who received 476 votes, was elected to the seat vacated by N. J. Roadhouse, the York Radial candidate.

Wm. Keith, an opponent of the hydro project, was elected to the seat vacated by the number of 28 over C. E. Lundy. The councillors elected are Dr. Boyd, Wm. Dolan, E. B. Smith, William Helmer, George Hill, with A. W. Evans and Howard Kane tied for the remaining seat.

The issue was involved by the introduction of local option interests into the campaign. Mr. Keith declared himself a strong supporter of local option, and his victory over Mr. Lundy is in a great measure due to this issue.

Of the three ex-councillors who broke their pledge and stood for office again, two were defeated, and the third, Mr. Kane, was elected to the seat vacated by the number of 28 over C. E. Lundy. The dramatic circumstances attending the resignation of seven of the eight members of the council, and the magnitude of the principle involved, brought many of the polls who had not voted for years.

Mr. Allan is at present at Niagara camp with the volunteers, and will not return to Newmarket until the end of the week.

GOVERNMENT WILL PAY UNION WAGES

That Has Always Been Its Policy in the Past, Says Dr. Reaume.

FACTS MISREPRESENTED

Carpenters in Queen's Park Will Draw Same Wages as Elsewhere.

The Ontario Government is prepared to pay union wages to all carpenters in their employ. This was the statement of Hon. Dr. Reaume, minister of public works, when approached yesterday as to his attitude.

"Whatever the union rate is decided to be will be adopted and paid by the government," he said. "I understand that the union rate is the rate agreed between the employees and the employer."

"The minister did not appreciate the statements appearing in the press to the effect that carpenters in Queen's Park were not going to enjoy the same salaries as their associates in other places. The facts were misrepresented."

To make the position of the government clear he gave for publication a letter which he sent to the secretary of the builders' exchange a week ago. It stated that on his return to the city he had understood the strike and he had immediately returned to his work and already progress in making roads, giving access to the different fishing points and other parts of the work are well advanced.

Beyond this explanation the minister did not wish to say anything. He indicated, however, that the government was willing at all times to concede with the union scale ultimately arrived at.

MORAL CRUSADER MADE WRONG GUESS

R. B. St. Clair's Evidence Failed to Convince Court of Woman's Guilt.

R. B. St. Clair got rather a severe setback in the police court yesterday morning in his case of involving the morals of Toronto. Late Monday evening the reverend gentleman thought he saw a woman accosting men on the street, and straightway summoned a policeman and had her arrested.

In the woman's court yesterday she vigorously denied St. Clair's allegations, and made it plain to Magistrate Kingsford that she was a respectable woman; that she has a situation, and is steadily working at it; that she is absolutely not brought here on this charge, declared the magistrate and discharged her. Mr. St. Clair's evidence was taken, but Magistrate Kingsford preferred to believe the woman, who gave her name as Miss Mary Lewis. She is colored.

CARNEGIE EAGER TO BE ABSORBED

Steel Trust Didn't Do the Coaxing, Says Former Director.

GREER WILL TESTIFY AT INQUEST TONIGHT

More Light Will Probably Be Thrown on Bruce's Death.

NEW YORK, June 17.—(Can. Press.)—Former Judge James H. Reed of Pittsburgh, a director of the U. S. Steel Corporation, and former counsel of the Carnegie Steel Co., today enlivened the hearing of the suit to dissolve the corporation by a description of the negotiations between Andrew Carnegie and J. P. Morgan for the sale of the Carnegie Co. to the corporation. His evidence was introduced to show that Andrew Carnegie was anxious to sell the company to the corporation in the confidence of the government, and that Mr. Morgan sought to secure the company in order to suppress competition.

"Pierpont, I am the happiest man in the world. I have unloaded this burden off my back to your shoulders. I am off for Europe. That is what Andrew Carnegie told me," said J. P. Morgan when Mr. Carnegie agreed to sell him the Carnegie Co., according to the witness.

Judge Reed said he had attended the so-called Gary dinners to steel manufacturers and had never heard of any agreements or understandings made at them. He said that he had never seen any of the papers which were said to be in the possession of the Carnegie Co. at the time of the negotiations.

"Judge Gary would exhort us like a Methodist preacher in a camp-meeting," said the witness, "telling us not to cut prices and to get everything in our own net. The policy he laid down saved a thousand men from bankruptcy. If prices had gone down, ruin would have followed."

TORONTO UNIVERSITY GETS A RHINOCEROS

Unusually Fine Animal Died at Brantford and Skeleton Will Be Preserved.

It is not often that a rhinoceros has the chance of dying in Canada. Too often they are compelled by crush of circumstances over which they have no control to pass away in foreign lands, honored and unsung, in dense jungles of the African wilds. This high honor of dying in Canada—however, has come to the specimen in the menagerie collection of the Barnum and Bailey circus. The rhinoceros died on Monday night when the circus was in Brantford. He was an unusually fine specimen of the horned type.

Mr. Rhinoceros has not died in vain, however. In a certain sense he will be immortal, for yesterday a representative of the Barnum and Bailey management called upon President Falconer and presented the remains of the rhinoceros to Toronto University. President Falconer was quite pleased with the present and after getting into communication with Prof. A. Pringle of the biological department arrangement was made for the mounting of the skeleton in the university museum.

HUSBAND LOYAL TO WIFE UNDER ARREST

Woman Charged With Raising Cheques Has Home in Renfrew.

CORNWALL, June 17.—(Special.)—Chief of Police Smyth has received a letter from James McKenna of Renfrew, Ont., making enquiry as to whether any date had been set for the trial of his wife, who was arrested last week at Spencerville for raising a $100 cheque to $1000, and asking to have her communicate with him if she would be allowed to do so.

The woman appeared before Judge O'Reilly today and elected to be tried by jury at the fall assizes, which opens here on September 23. The woman appeared under the name of Freda Helen Howard, but from the enquiry from Renfrew, it would seem that her right name is Mrs. McKenna.

COL. CROWE HONORED

KINGSTON, June 17.—(Special.)—At the Royal Military College today a concert in honor of Col. Crowe, Col. Crowe, Capt. Cochrane, Canon Starr and Col. Crowe.

CONFIRMATION SERVICE

The annual confirmation service, held last evening (St. Alban's Day) in the cathedral, was attended by a large congregation. A full choir rendered the musical part of the service very heartily. Canon MacNab, in charge, presented a class of 39 candidates for confirmation. The offering for the building fund given at the service was the largest sum ever received at any previous confirmation. The bishop's address was a strong exhortation and full of Godly counsel.

WARD SEVEN.

For the third time this year the ice cream and refreshment booth of Mrs. Adell at Lambton Park was broken into early yesterday morning and a large quantity of cigars, bottled water, and other articles were stolen. At the time, however, the county police were not after the trail and it was understood last night that County Constable Bolton had arrested two men from the Rummymede district on the charge of theft.

The Governor-General's Body Guard band provided the program at a concert in Carlton Park last evening. Carlton Park, it appears is the vacant lot near the corner of Edwin and Edith avenues, and is of that peculiar order of parks which Baird Park and several other "barred" parks are members.

The members of Excelsior Camp, Woodmen of the World, at their meeting last night in St. James' Hall, arranged for their annual memorial service and decoration of the graves of deceased members, which will be held next. The service will be held in conjunction with the other city lodges in Association Hall, after which the West Toronto soldiers' club will be organized with their floral tributes to Prospect and Humberside Cemeteries, where the decorations will be held.

Mrs. Elizabeth James has accumulated a fortune selling watercress in London. She began as a child of five years, and her mother, a widow, was a dress and now supplies nearly every hotel in London. She owns a watercress farm, a country house, keeps a motor launch and maintains a city residence.

Steffan Denies Committing Serious Crime.

BERLIN, Ont., June 17.—(Special.)—Frank Steffen, the young man arrested on a serious charge on Friday last, was given a preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace Rohleder and committed for trial. He was then taken before Judge Reade and pleaded not guilty, and his trial was set down for Friday.

JUDGE CHISHOLM TO RETIRE.

GALT, June 17.—(Special.)—A local paper announces the approaching retirement of Judge Chisholm, county judge of Waterloo for 19 years. His honor is 77 years of age, two years beyond the age limit defined by statute. County Crown Attorney Ward Bowley is 83, but has not any notion of giving up office, he says smilingly, but in earnest.

BURGLAR'S PLEA UNAVAILING

GUELPH, June 17.—(Special.)—Alfred Fields, the colored man who was caught in the act of breaking into the grocery store of H. King, on Elizabeth street, was brought before Magistrate Watt this morning. Fields, in his defence, declared that he was so drunk that he did not know what he was doing, and begged the police magistrate to give him another chance.

Whatever the motives of the prisoners had been, Judge Phillimore said that he must treat them as persons who had done a very serious injury to public peace and who must be restrained from doing further mischief and made to some extent an example to others. After passing sentence, he said:

"No More Leniency. "One of the counsel has suggested that the time for leniency has passed, and I do not think that you will meet with quite the same treatment as have the others. I am bound to add that if the home secretary consults me, as he often consults a judge, I shall take upon myself the responsibility of saying to him that the ringleaders among you, at any rate, should not be let out of prison under any circumstances."

ADVISE TO TORONTO ALDERMEN.

GALT, June 17.—(Special.)—The Reporter says: "The finances of Toronto are being badly handled, according to leading members of its city council. During a discussion of the same, an alderman said the trouble was that small town methods had been adhered to. We object. The Toronto methods and no other produce the mixing and mudding that is now so severely criticized."

Decorate for the Holiday Season
Toronto is much favored by tourists from all over the continent. They flock to our gates during June, July and August, and go away highly pleased with our city. Why not give the city more of a holiday appearance by decorating our residential streets so that the visitors on the street cars and trolley-rides throughout the city may be more favorably impressed with its appearance? Why not decorate the verandahs in a blaze of color? The World has made it possible to do so at a very nominal cost; these gorgeously-hued Pennants lend themselves to attractive arrangement.
