BRITISH HEADQUARTERS FRANCE, July 3, (via London, July 4) .- One might have gone miles along the British front this week without hearing the sound of a gun. It seemed as if both sides were taking a holiday from war out of respect for the beautiful summer weather, or else the silence was significant of preparation and accumulation of shells by one side or the other for some great effort.

Beyond the occasional explosion of a mine and routine shelling to harrass the enemy's guns, to destroy new fortification works or to keep the enemy from taking life too easily there reserve have been swimming in the canal, resting under shaded trees, playing cricket and football and tend ing their flower gardens about their quarters, which have been made to look like those one sees in front of rows of cottages at this season in Eng-

GLEN COVE. N.Y., July 4.-Frank Holt, the former Cornell University instructor, who attempted to assassinate J. P. Morgan at East Isle, Mr. Morgan's summer home near here, vesterday, has confessed that he was the man who set the bomb which exploded in the United States Capitol at Washington Friday night. Mr. Morgan, the victim of the bullets which Holt fired Saturday morning, was said by specialists at his bedside to be resting well tonight. No vital organs, the physicians announced, have been involved in his injury. By his confession and the detailed description of the bomb he used in the capitol outrage, Holt stamped himself as an expert on the use of explosives, the police assert. Immediately his confession was obtained, the chief of the Washington police, a squad of secret service operatives, and New York City detectives and Bertillon and finger-print experts were summoned to
