kets being dull and drooping. kets being dull and drooping. European orop reports, which had been good all along, were not so favorable to day. On Thursday United States markets were slightly improved. Colder weather indications, with fear of crop damage, made the Chicago market a trifle firmer. On Fiday cables were lower toward the close. United States markets were firmer and more active, but the gain was all lost later in more active, but the gain was an iost and in the day.

LOCAL WHEAT.—There is no change in the local wheat situation. At some country markets there was more activity in farmers' deliv eries, indicating a movement to bring in a little wheat before the break-up of the roads, which is looked for any day. Prices in country markets range fro n 43 to 54: for best samples, according to local competition, freight rates, etc. The movement castward is slightly increased.

-There is no change in flour, and Foourrecord in the trade drags its weary length along, partaking of the weakness in wheat. Locally there is no change. Prices are quoted as follows to the local trade in small lots per 100 pounds: Patents, $1.95; strong bakers' $1.75; XXXX 75 to 950; superfine 60 to 70c. Brands of some mills sell at 5 to 10c under these prices area in small late. Round under these prices, even in small lots. Round lots at a discount under quotations.

MILLSTOFFS—This is is the pleasant feature MILLSTOFFS—This is is the pleasant feature of the milling trade at present, bran and shorts being in good demand at firm prices. The comparison of bran and shorts with low grade flours is interesting at present, showing the former to be the more profitable products to the miller. Bran was quoted at $11, and shorts $13 per ton, and the price at the close was advanced $1 on each to $12 and $14 per ton.

OATS—On the Winnipeg street market, the price ranges from 24 to 26c, the latter for milling. Car lots, on track, country points, 18 ing. Car lots, on track, country por to 20c, according to freight and quality.

Minneapolis Markets.

Following were closing quotations for wheat on Wednesday, March 22:—

Grades,	Mar.	May.	July	On tr'k
No. 1 hard No. 1 northern No. 2 northern	63	619	662	661 65 62

Flour—Considerable flour sold lately that nothing was said about at the time, and what is now known of it, the amount must have been nearly equal to the output for the last week. They were probably induced partly by hardened prices for wheat and more firmness a few days for flour. In general the feeling is dull. Quoted at $3.50 to 4.00 for for first patents; $3.30 to 3.50 for second patents; $2.00 to 2.40 for fancy and export bakers; $1.15 to 1.45 for low grades, in bags, including red dog. red dog.

Bran and Shorts—Bran was quiet at about $9.75 in bulk, with some flat bran held over it. Demand was fair at the inside but at firm figures buyers held off or went away for supplies. Shorts continued in about the usual demand at steady prices.

Oats-The market was steady for eash oats. Supply ligh. Sales at 30½ to 32½ for car lots. Feed—Millers hold at $15.00@15.50; less than car lots, $15.00@16.00; with cora meal at $14.00@14.50; granutated meal $19.00.—Marke! Record, March 22.

The death took place at Bath, England on March 24, af Alexander Buntin, the big Canadian paper manufacturer.

The first issue of a new daily, to be called the Echo, is expected to appear at Fort William, Ont., shortly.
