

beseech him to enable you to practise those particular virtues and good works, which are most necessary to you, and to preserve you from sin, and all dangers during the night; devoutly recite the acts of faith, hope and charity, and the other prayers as in the morning, or any other form of prayer you are accustomed to at night.

The examination of conscience is strongly recommended as a very important Christian duty, and is one of the most profitable and effectual means to avoid sin, and to acquire virtue; wherefore all persons who have at heart their salvation, and are truly desirous to please God, will constantly and diligently attend to the examination of conscience every night.

Prayer said in common, that is, by many together, is certainly more acceptable to God, and more beneficial than prayer which is offered in private by one individual alone; and on this principle is chiefly grounded the pious and edifying practice in many families, of joining together in prayer every night; and it is most earnestly to be wished that every Catholic family should adopt it.

The many signal blessings which God has bestowed on those families in which prayers are regularly said in common, should engage every head of a family to introduce and establish so laudable a custom; particularly at night, when all in the family may be assembled with greater convenience. "Where there are two or three gathered together in my name," says Christ, "there am I in the midst of them." Matt. xviii. 20.

A PRAYER TO OUR ANGEL GUARDIAN.

V. He hath given his angels charge over thee.

R. To keep thee in all thy ways.

O HOLY Angel! to whose care God, in his mercy, hath committed me; thou who assistest me in my tribulations, who consolest me in my afflictions, who supportest me when I am tempted, and who constantly obtainest for me new favors; I return thee now most sincere and humble thanks: and I conjure thee, O amiable Guide! to continue still thy care; to defend me against my enemies; to remove from me the occasions of sin, to obtain for me a docility to thy holy inspirations; to protect me, in particular, at the hour of my death; and then conduct me to the mansions of eternal repose. Amen.
