SIX BIG POWERS

Sir Edward Grey's Suggestion of Conference of Ambassadors Will Probably Be Adopted.

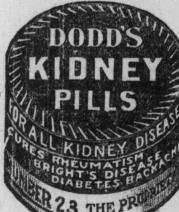

FEARS SERIOUS DRIFT

Step Will, It Is Hoped, Bring Groups Into Alignment -Points of Agree-

LONDON, Nov. 28 .- (Can. Press.)-Sir Edward Grey's proposal that the ambassadors of the six great powers, Great Britain, France, Germany, Russia, Austria-Hungary and Italy, should assemble in one of the capitals with closer quarters today, nothing has the view of emphasizing the points reached the outer world as to the acarising out of the Balkan war, on which the nations are already in agreement, is understood to have the sup-port of Germany, France and Russia. The idea is to endeavor to avert the disposition to drift into an alignment of the two groups of powers forming— the triple alliance and the triple the triple alliance and the triple en-tente in opposite camps over isolated questions such as caused the tension which existed early this week.

CHURCH TO RUN FOR BOARD OF CONTROL

for arrangement at the end of the war, the ambassadors will be able to register an agreement in principle on such matters as the future of Albania, the disposition of the islands in the Aegean Sea, and the opening or closing of the Dardanelles.

Albania to Be independent.

For instance, the powers apparently are all ready to recognize Albanian independence and to pledge themselves not to seek territorial acquisitions in the Aegean Sea.

Some revision of the standing of the Dardanelles seems bound to follow the changes of the map arising from the war, and there is a disposition to believe that they will be opended. He Is Young Yet and There Is Heaps of Time For Him to Be Mayor. Controller Church definitely announced yesterday that he would run for the board of control on Jan. 1 next, instead of for mayor. He stated that he had been urged by many friends to run for the mayoralty and would have done so had a vacancy not occurred during the present year.

The controller thinks he has done a fair share of the board's work, having started the good roads movement and the deepening of the Welland Canal, as well as the reorganization of the works department.

"I am told that I am only a young man," said he, "and can afford to wait a year or so for promotion, altho I am the senior member of the council in point of continuous service." tion to believe that they will be open-ed on a basis of equality for all na-tions. Problems like the Austro-Servian difficulty will be left for settlement after peace has been concluded.

The main object of the proposed conference is to bring the powers into closer contact and to have in existence an authorizative body white au authoritative body which will be in a position to eliminate causes of friction whenever they arise.

Parlor-Car Diplomacy.

News as to the negotiations of the Bu garian and Turkish envoys at the Village of Baghtche, near the lines of Tchatalja, and the temporary lull on the battlefields, is very scanty. Be-yond the fact that the plenipotenti-aries sitting in the parlor car between the two armies are expected to get to in point of continuous service."

Kingston's Roadway Squabble.
KINGSTON, Nov. 28—(Special.)H. W. Richardson, president of the Kingston Street Railway, told a deputation which waited upon him from the city council to secure a price for the sale of the road to the city, that the road was not for sale. He says tha the company financed it when it was not on a paying basis, and now that it

So pleased was the royal party and these of Government House with this instrument that an order was given by the government for the piano to remain as an important part of the equipment of Government House, It is conceded by toose who have had an opportunity of critically examining this beautiful instrument that it is one of the best grand pianos manufactured in the world.

H. W. Richardson, president of the Kingston Street Railway, told a deput tation which watted upon him from the city council to secure a price for the sale of the road to the city, that the read was not for sale. He says that the company basis, and new that it is paying the company wants to get the cream.

Three years ago the city could have purchased the railway for almost noth ling, and the citizens are agitating for the fact that the council and company are at loggerheads over the paving of Princess street.
