NEW YORK STOCKS WEAK ON ELECTION RETURNS

Sharp Slump on Wall Street With Some Reflection on the Local Market.

There were no new developments in local stock circles to-day, but a selling movement of fair-sized proportions was staited at the opening and continued throut the trading. The only inference drawn from the market's action by traders was that peols had to conform to the change in the

The market developed a decidedly reactionary feeling, which was reflected in a general selling movement, with pressure on the traction stocks, and rather liberal selling of the standard railroad and industrial issues. The basis for this solling appeared to be uneasiness over the results of the election, which indicated widespread dissatisfaction with existing order of things, and antagonism to corporate interests. The direct statement that the defeated candidate will contest the election returns in the courts, and insist upon a recount, was disturbing, and influenced considerable seiling.

—Town Topics.

Directors of American Cotton Oil Company meet to-morrow, and will declare regular semi-annual dividend of 3 per cent, on preferred stock, and will also take action on matter of a dividend on common stock for the year. Year before last 4 per cent, was paid on common: last year, business having been comparatively poor, one per cent, was paid in December and none in June. It is understood business has greatly improved in the last few months, but the average for the year, while ahead of the year before, will compare poorly with the last five years. It is deemed practically perfain that a dividend will be declared this time, but no semi-insider is inclined to predict how much it will be.

London.—(Evening.)—Home rails were the best feature on the curb, closing firm on excellent traffic conditions. Other departments featureless, There is little expetation of any change in the Bank of Endand rate to-morrow. Americans closed heavy, but up from the lowest.

We are advised that less-than 1000 of the old Northern Securities stock remain outstanding. Under these circumstances it is suggested that dealings in the stock maysby attended with some risk. This is the last day that the old Northern Securities stocks can be surrendered so as to obtain the Great Northern rights, offered in circular of Oct. 10, 1905.—New York News.

"We have now inspected 20,000,0.0 bushels of this crop, of which 85 per cent, is high grade, that is, No. 2 nor thern and better. We have never before had so much rejected for being mixed with wild oats, and barley, and cockle and ragweed. The terminal elevators cannot take these out without special cleaning, and for this they have to make a special charge.

"The percentage of cars rejected in this way is nearly double what it was last year, and last year was serous enough. This matter of foreign grain and impurities is becoming year; more serious and cannot be too earne ty dealt with, the loss to the producer is so serious and the dissatisfaction on all sides is so aggravating."
