Up to Closing Day at Woodbine Three Favorites Win on Friday

Photographer First in Canadian Handicap—J.G.C. TakesSteeplechase—Peter Knight Beats Oberon--Big Card To-Day.

Favorites had a good day on Friday, as things go at Woodbine Park, three and the 7 to 1 shot, Peter Knight. The day was fine until the last race and warm all afternoon. The attend-good start by landing the first race easily, running in a good position the first half mile, and then going out for the money. Cousin Kate look-Reg nesed he rout of the show. The first and thirdhorses and Scarfell were most played. Burton and Powers were thrown in a jam at the start, but neither was badly hurt. Cousin Kate would have probably won but for her runaway before the race. Grand Dame was made favorite for the 2-year-old event, but the amount the 2-year-old event, but the amount of money on with J. Lee up was more than the Commoner filly could carry, and she finished in the ruck. Burt 6. Lewis and Banyah fought it out up the stretch, the former getting the verdict by a head. Ketchemike beat at the same distance and with only two lbs. more up, but the 7 lbs. off J. G. C. was more than the colt jumper could withstand. Hufham had Queen's Park, to-day, at 2.30 p.m.

in the easiest possible manner at the end. He was an even money favorite opening, but was soon backed down a point. Koerner rode a patient race and came away in the stretch when he got ready. Moonraker and Caper Sauce, who finished second and third retrievilyely. respectively, were at 12 to 1 with 5 to 1 place, the former and 2 to 1 show against the latter.

The last race of the day, a 3-4 mile

The last race of the day, a 3-4 mile dash for 2-year-olds, was run on a muddy track. A sharp rain just before the race made the going sloppy, but in spite of that J. S. Flynn's Goes Fast, a br. filly by Blitzen, stepped the distance in 1.14 4-5, which was a good performance. She was favorite for the race and won handly. McDaniel put up a good ride on J. J. Walsh's colt Dredger, landing him in second place after a persistent effort all thru the stretch. "Mistah" Lee landed the show on McQuiddy by half a length before the well played Moliere.

Goes Fast up $405 above her entered price of $900. J. S. Flynn, her owner, bid the necessary $5 and kept the Oberon, J. Burtschell's 4-year-old gelding, was the favorite for the third race, a mile and an eighth journey, and was well played by the public, but second to Peter Knight was the best he could do. The latter won by a scant margin, after having a big lead upon entering the stretch. Jupiter, always prominent, finished in third place, but had only a head lead on Warning, the fourth horse.

On account of Pioneer's easy win in the Roysterer steeplechase Wednesday, he was selected to bring home the bacon in the Stockbridge yesterday at the same distance and with only
