CABINET MINISTERS AS COMPANY JOBBERS AND PROMOTERS. Children's Cottages.

The regular open meeting of the Methodist Deaconess Ald Society was held in the home on Jarvis-street yesterday aftermoon and was very largely attended. Mrs. D. G. Sutherland, the president, occupied the chair. Addresses were given by Miss Carson on "The Need of Children's Cottage Work," and by Miss Scott on their general work during the past quarter. An interesting discussion took place on the children's cottage work as treated by Miss Carson and from the beginning made yesterday it is likely cottages will be rented outside the city during the summer for the treatment of children.
