GLORY WHALEN A ROCIETY AT BRANTFORD

Eight-Year-Old Girl Assaulted and Murdered.

WHOLE CITY AROUSED BY FIENDISH DEED

Irene Cole, Daughter of Peter Cole, an Employee of the Massey-Harris Company, Found Dead by Her Own Father Shortly After 7 p.m., Having Been Missing Since One o'Clock—Joseph Kennedy, With Blood on Shirt, Arrested.

Brantford, Ont., (Special)—Between 1 and 2 this morning the police arrested Joseph Kennedy, a coachman, as being the perpetrator of the crime. The arrest followed information received from Jesse Willoughby, a resident near the home of the victim, who upon hearing the man described, notified the police of seeing Kennedy in the vicinity of the tragedy all afternoon. Kennedy was arrested on the outskirts of the town. When he was examined the police discovered blood stains on his shirt. He will say nothing further than to stoutly deny having committed the crime.

Joseph Kennedy, who answers in every detail to the description of the man wanted, came to Brantford about eight weeks ago from his home in Belfast, Ireland. He has been employed as a coachman by several people in Brantford, but his unsteady habits and love of drink has resulted in his discharge from all his positions. The Brantford police are satisfied they have the right man, but until the dog is examined his clothing and the bloodstains, no definite assertion can be made. A man was also arrested in Welland.

Wanted—Heavy-set Englishman suspected of the brutal murder of Irene Cole at Brantford. Answers to the following description: Age 35 to 40; height, 5 feet 6 inches; weight, between 150 and 175 pounds; wore grey suit; dark moustache; wore red necktie; black shirt, white collar.

CHILD MURDERED.
Brantford, Sept. 30.—(Special)—A terrible tragedy resembling in many ways the murder of Glory Whalen near Collingwood some months ago, was perpetrated here to-day between the hours of 1 and 7 p.m. Irene, the 8-year-old

LORD SALISBURY'S WILL.
Personal Estate Valued at Over $300,000.

London, Sept. 30.—The will of the late Lord Salisbury has just been proved. The gross value of his estate amounted to £310,356. 8s., and the net value to £208,122. 8s. 7d. The executors are his son, James Edward Hubert, now fourth Marquis of Salisbury, and Lord Edgar Algernon Robert Cecil, K.C. The will bears date Nov. 23, 1891, with codicils of Feb. 10, 1893, and Feb. 11 and Sept. 11, 1895, and the testator stated that he had disposed of his real estate and his personal chattels in the French Republic, and his money with the French banks and French bankers, by a separate will. The will contains the following bequests: Lady Gwendolen (daughter), £11,000; Lady Salisbury (widow), £10,000; Grandchildren, each £1,000; Lord Eustace Cecil (brother), £1,000; Sir Richard Nicholson (nephew), £500. The late Lord Salisbury (in addition to £100,000 a year) £10,000. His Lordship bequeathed his residuary estate, including the Marquis of Salisbury, and his money with the London and Westminster Bank and Messrs. Drummond, the securities in the iron mine, his share in the Marquis of Salisbury, and his other residuary estate, excepting that in France, in equal shares to his four younger sons, Lord Edward, Lord Robert, Lord Hugh, Lord Richard Cecil, but subject to bringing into account against the share of the first-named of the sums of £25,000 each settled in their favor on their marriages. The furniture, pictures, articles of jewelry, and effects, horses and carriages, live and dead farming stock, Hatfield House, and the Manor House, Cranborne, and at 20 Arlington-street, are bequeathed to his eldest son.

KILLED BY A TRAIN.
St. Thomas, Sept. 30.—William Aigle, aged 35, and supposed to be of unusual mind, was killed by being struck by a train in the Washburn yard here at 6 o'clock to-day. He was at one time a conductor on the Grand Trunk, but for the last two years has been confined in an asylum. He was in St. Thomas attending court. He leaves a wife and several children.

EXPRESS KILLS FOUR.
Philadelphia, Sept. 30.—Four persons were killed and several injured to-day by being struck by an express train at Sharon Hill, a few miles from this city, on the Philadelphia, Baltimore & Washington Railroad.

TRAIN HITS TROLEY.
Chicago, Sept. 30.—Five persons were killed and 20 or 25 others injured to-night by a Wisconsin Central train running into a street car in Southwark.

GUY PEARSE AS ENTERTAINER.
Last night Rev. Mark Guy Pearse lectured on "The Old Folks at Home" in the Parkdale Methodist Church, on Dunn avenue, to a gathering that filled every available foot of space. The pulpit of prominent clergymen. The lecture of the celebrated British evangelist was replete with stories, which he told in an inimitable style, and kept his audience in tears of laughter. His rendition of the Yorkshire dialect was almost perfect, and his story of "the pretty ways of Providence" made an excellent hit. As an evening entertainment the affair was a huge success and the audience clamored for more when Mr. Pearse had concluded his home address, but he pleaded weariness.

50,000 RECRUITS CALLED OUT.
Constantinople, Sept. 30.—An Imperial decree has been issued calling out 50,000 recruits in the districts of the Second and Third army corps.

3000 HAVE PLED.
Sofia, Sept. 30.—Another despatch from the Bulgarian government reports that the whole district of Razlog has been mobilized and has fled. Three thousand men and children, fugitives from the Turkish soldiers, have arrived at Blizna.

Smokers buy Perfection smoking mixture, the only tobacco that is cool and fragrant. Alive Hollar.

SIR MICHAEL HERBERT DIES

FROM BREAST TUBERCULOSIS

Passes Away Suddenly in Switzerland Where He Had Gone to Recover Health.

London, Sept. 30.—Sir Michael Herbert, the British Ambassador to the United States, died suddenly to-day at 1:30 p.m., at Davos-Platz, Switzerland, after a long and plucky fight against consumption. The first announcement was made at this afternoon's session of the Alaskan Boundary Commission. Sir Michael had been at Davos-Platz about five weeks. When he returned to London from America he was ill, but he did not let his physicians know. He still held out hopes of his conquering the consumption. The Ambassador expected to leave Davos-Platz a week or so ago, in order to meet the Alaskan Commissioners here, but he contracted bronchitis. Of this he wrote, only a few days ago, to his wife, saying that it was only annoying because on account of it the doctor insisted on his not going to London to see his American friends.

Lady Herbert intended to leave Switzerland a short time ago with her children, but she was obliged to change her plans and remained at Davos-Platz.

DEU TO OVERSTRAIN.
Davos-Platz, Switzerland, Sept. 30.—The overstrain of Sir Michael's duties at Washington, especially in connection with the negotiations of the Venezuelan dispute, reacted seriously on his long weakness and was largely responsible for his death. The climate here appeared to cause a distinct improvement in his condition, but 10 days ago he was attacked with pulmonary hemorrhage, which resulted in a general weakening of the system and he afterwards declined rapidly. With him during the time of his death were his wife, his brother, the Earl of Pembroke, the Countess of Grey, and his sister, Countess of Grey. The interment will take place at Wilton, England.

TRIBUTES PAID.
London, Sept. 30.—(C.A.P.)—Before the Alaskan Commission after-noon President Lord Alverston announced the death of Sir Michael Herbert, ambassador at Washington, and spoke most feelingly of his great ability and devotedness to his country.

THE SOO TURNS ADRIFT ITS 600 FREE GUESTS—NO MORE TROUBLE IS ANTICIPATED.
Sault Ste. Marie, Sept. 30.—(Special)—Military discipline and rigorous police measures have been taken to control the situation. Col. Buchanan was disposed to return to the Toronto corps to-day, so thoroughly was the commanding officer impressed with the ability of the regulars to handle the men, but the frantic appeals of Manager Coyne backed by the advice of Canal Superintendent Boyd induced the officer to delay his return of all the militia for another day.

STRANGE HOW IT HAPPENED BUT THE PROOF IS THERE
Team Ran Away and Tongue of Oil Tank Went Clean Thru Telephone Pole.

Hamilton, Sept. 30.—(Special)—Something occurred this evening at the corner of King and John streets that does not happen once in a thousand years. A big team attached to a heavy tank of the Oil Tank went clean thru the telephone pole.

WOUNDED BY BAYONETS.
The train was then run into the city, surrounded by more troops than had ever before been seen in the city. The business district passed beyond the dead-line established by the militia and scattered over the city. The line for these and they gave respectful attention to the presence of the men and their horses. The three men who were wounded by bayonets, they thought they must be killed out by the militia, but they were not. They were taken to the hospital and treated.

MR. CLERGEUE DENIES.
Editor World: My attention is called to your issue of Sept. 27th, wherein you make the following statement: "The following telegram was received from F. H. Clergue by Superintendent Lewis of the St. John's Police Department: 'Wanted works to resume operations Oct. 10. All salaries will be paid $1000 per month. I have paid $1000 to the men. I wish you to give to the men the same amount as I have given to the men. I wish you to give to the men the same amount as I have given to the men.'"

WAR ON THE CIGARET.
The W. C. T. U. convention closed last night in the East Kingston Methodist Church, when Mrs. A. O. Rutherford, the president of the Dominion W. C. T. U., spoke of the work against this growing evil had only started four years ago, and she brought to see that cigars were a great menace to the boys and girls of Canada. She said that the men who smoke cigars and tobacco are the cause of the poverty and suffering of the world.

BRANTFORD'S POLLUTION.
Brantford, Sept. 30.—(Special)—The people of Brantford are to-day, an increase of 100,000 last year.

Loss of $5000.
Colborne, Sept. 30.—A. B. Cherrin's house was burned last night. The loss will be $5000.

BILL AT LAST PASSES THROUGH GREAT CONTEST DIES OUT

Sir Wilfrid Says Government Intends to Absorb the Quebec Bridge.

Ottawa, Sept. 30.—(Special)—This afternoon the national transportation railway bill was read a third time. The great contest of the session flickered out in a rather tame discussion. Sir Wilfrid Laurier stated that it was the government's intention to absorb the Quebec bridge in connection with the Grand Trunk Pacific scheme.

G. Taylor moved his amendment, requiring the delivery of Canadian freight to Canadian ports, provided the freight was not specifically routed otherwise by the shipper. Discussing the amendment, Col. Hughes said he could not see why the government should not operate as well as the road from a business point of view. Either that or the operation should be given to a company independent of American connections. The amendment was defeated.

A similar fate befell Sir Barker's amendment, providing that, in case of dispute, the appointment of a referee from the Interstate Commerce Commission, between the Grand Trunk and the Grand Trunk Pacific, the difference shall be decided by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

A. C. Bell's amendment, providing that the Grand Trunk Pacific should give the government a mortgage upon the property and equipment of the western division and upon the equipment of the eastern division, was also defeated. The government's intention for the bill was then adopted. The bill was read a third time and passed.
