FARMERS' MEMORIAL SAYS UNREST GROWS GOVERNMENT BY ORDER-IN-COUNCIL

Borden Is Told Through Statement Barred From Presentation To Commons That Assumption of Prerogative Belonging To Parliament Is Arousing Dangerous Spirit.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, May 15.—The memorial which it was the intention of the farmers to read to the House of Commons yesterday, had their appointees been granted entry, was read last night at the Arena, and consists principally of a protest against the delegation of Parliamentary functions and powers to the governor-in-council and against the curtailment of the privileges of the representatives of the people. The assumption by the Government of prerogatives rightly belonging to Parliament is strongly warned against.

"It is," says the memorial. "an agre-able recognition of the new relationship which the war is producing as between those who govern and those who are governed by consent." Gratification is also expressed that a larger independence of thought and speech than is all has been evinced in the new Prilament.

"The unrest in Country.
"The unrest in the country which has brought about the unexampled spectacle of thousands of farmers leaving their important work of planting their crops to come to the capital to remonstrate with the Government," continues the memorial, "is unknown to every member of this House. Copenhagen, May 14.—The Germans still are of the belief that they will be able to reach the English Channel coast, bar navigation of the waters, and bombard Southern England, and that then it will be easy to begin peace negotiations, according to an interview the Politiken has had with a prominent German politician, a member of the Reichstag, who requested that his name be not used. He added that the German offensive thus far had proved a fallure, owing to the heavy losses, and that the German high command was waiting to obtain more artillery. Exemptions Being Considered From Information Given On Questionnaires.

12 CASES DAILY ALLOTED

The Senior County Judges Throughout District Scrutinize Exemption Pleas.

The review of the questionnairs sheets, submitted by men in A Category, from 23 to 34 years, inclusive, was commenced by Judge Tabot Macbeth at the court house today.

The completed forms, as returned to the deputy registrar by men from this part of the district are being alloted to review Mecheth at the rate of 12 per Macbeth at the rate of 12 per In other parts of the district other

In other parts of the district other county judges will act in a similar capacity. Judge Barron of Stratford, Judge Dromgole of Windsor, and Judge McWatt of Sarnia are some of the judges who have been requested to review the exemptions granted to Category A men in the counties where they act as judges.

The senior county judge of each of the eleven counties comprising Military District No. 1 will act as the exemption review judge, it is understood. Morlancourt, south of Albert, and in Fianders, north of Kemmel, the war emption review judge, it is understood.

The exemption review judge's duties will be to consider the answers to questions placed by each man on his questionnaire form. The man will not appear before the judge in person unless this official requests his presence. This request will be made to the deputy registrar, who will in turn instruct the man that his presence in his own interests is required before the judge on a certain date.
Although a man is not forced to appear before the judge his failure to do so, if ordered, would likely mean the cancellation of his exemption.

The object of the review is to reduce to a minimum the number of exemptions granted to A men, and thereby procure more soldiers.

Conditions in many cases of men granted exemption have changed since these men were granted exemption certificates.

Upon the replies contained in the questionnaire forms to be reviewed by the judges will depend on how many exemptions will be cancelled and how

AUTO TURNED TURTLE.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Kingsville, May 15.—This morning, while Charles Staddon, real estate dealer of Walkerville, was driving an auto on the Lake Shore road, something went wrong with the auto, causing it to turn turtle, pinning Mr. Staddon, the only cocupant, beneath the car. His collarbone was broken, and he was otherwise badly bruised about the body. Mr. Staddon was taken to the home of his brother, John Staddon, Arner, where Dr. Lee was summoned and attended to the injuries.

Trouble Started Before.

An effort has been made to find the real trouble germ that has affected the local department, and it would seem that it was first planted a few years ago. In a word, the small coterie of vote-seeking aldermen, usually found on each council and of which this year's council is said to be no exception, may be blamed.

"It's like dirt in the corner, it needs turning over to air," is the way Mayor C. R. Somerville regards the trouble in the fire department.

The mayor, with Ald. F. C. Harley, went into all the complaints which were sent to the Underwriters' Association and which led to its inspector coming to the city. The mayor and aldermen went with the inspector and inquired into each complaint. They do not take them seriously. The mayor believes that the members of the department should work out their own salvation.

The question may be discussed tonight.

The germ of dissension which seems to have struck the local fire department and threatened to impair its efficiency unless exterminated, seems to be fairly active in fire departments all over Canada.

The Hamilton department is having throughe at present. In Toronto the firemen are having a wild time in trying to form a union, while in Winnipeg four-fifths of the firemen are on strike. About a month ago the firemen of Edmonton sent an ultimatum to the mayor

MONSTER BARRIER OF MINES TO FOIL SUBS

London, May 15 .- The British admiralty restriction on navigation in the northern part of the North Sea in consequence of the laying of a great mine field for the purpose of folling submarines, became operative today, and hereafter all shipping in that area must comply with stringent regulations or ignore them at their own peril. After dark no ship will be allowed within the prescribed area, which lies between the coasts of Norway and Scotland, and any vessel finding itself there half an hour after sunset must anchor in accordance with the admiralty's direction. The regulations include strict rules affecting all except warships entering and leaving the ports of Northeastern Scot land, as well as the Orkney and Shetland Islands. The vast barrier, which seems to have been over-estimated in exten in earlier reports is now said to cover approximately 22,000 square miles.

All-Embracing.

Comments from Austrian newspapers reaching London tend to confirm the opinion that the alliance of the central powers has been consolidated in an alliance. powers has been consolidated in an all powers has been consolidated in an all-embracing manner. Vienna newspapers are unanimous in the view that a mul-titude of enemies necessitates self-preservation, and demands that Ger-many and Austria-Hungary should give their defensive alliance a general char-acter. They also emphasize that nei-ther empire will give up its political, military or economic personality. Military or economic personality.

Much interest is displayed in allied capitals as to the meeting between the German and Austrian emperors and their diplomatic and military assistants and especially in the truth behind the apparently purposely vague official statements on its result. That a more firm alliance between the two countries has been cemented is certain, and it is believed Austria-Hungary has been forced to make up for her delinquencies as an of the Military and Jugo Slav states.
