Strike Cripples Transporta- Chairman Hill Objects tion-Only Sixty-One Trains Operate.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—With the strike-bound Brooklyn Rapid Transit system only able to operate 61 two-car elevated subway trains and no surface cars at all, great throngs of Brooklynites went home tonight on motor trucks, furniture vans, buses and vehicles of every description. Other thousands walked across the East River bridges, which were a mass of hurrying humanity.

Extra municipal ferryboat service assisted others to cross from Mahhattan who otherwise would have been delayed for hours in getting home. Many business concerns sent their employees home in trucks.

No attempt will be made to run surface cars in Brooklyn tomorrow, B. R. T. officials said tonight, but they hoped to have them moving soon with new men.

Morrison of the Guelph police force, motored to Breslau via a back route, the inspector and the two officers slipped into the crowded bar unnoticed, but as soon as the proprietor of the hotel realized that his place was being raided there was great commotion, and the mistress of the house made a hasty retreat upstairs with two of the raiding part close on her heels.
