Three Whitney Horses Win.

NEW YORK. Sept. 9.—The features of the racing at Sheepshead Bay to-day were the victories of the horses belonging to-H. P. Whitney. Out of four starters from the stable, they won three races and ran last in the other. Petticoat won gan mystery. In the combination betting at San Francisco, wherever Papke's name appeared, in Attell-Nelson combinations, to make the chances even, it was stipulated that Ketchel had to win in twelve rounds, or Papke to stay twelve, instead of the scheduled twenty-five. In San Francisco, where Ketchel made his fame and fortune, 3 to 1 went begging, and even mary:

3. Santo Strato, 100 to 6.

August Belmont's Norman III. was among the ten starters, but failed to get a place.

Turf Exodus to Europe.

PARIS, Sept. 9.—It was announced that August Belmont, president of the Jockey Club in the United States, has acquired a place of land near Dieppe, to which he will transfer a number of his race horses from America. This action is taken, it is said, because of the passage of antibetting laws in the United States. Peter Duryea has rented for the same purpose the famous Gazon stud farm, formerly the property of Maurice Ephrussi.

The stories that drifted from the west about Ketchel's high-stepping entered into all the gabfests when the wonderful fight was talked about. Papke remembered that first crack on the jaw that he got from Ketchel in the Milwaukee fight, because he refused Ketchel's hand when the latter offered it at the tap of the gong. It was while drawing back from that identical shake that Ketchel floored the Thunderbolt, and he never recovered from the shock. Papke beat Ketchel at his own game Mouday.

Now this much is evident, says a New York writer: Either Papke lacks the finishing punch or the ability to plant it where it belongs, or Ketchel is the most remarkable glutten for punishment that
