

YORK COUNTY

NORTH TORONTO TO-DAY NOTES ON WATER BYLAW

Indications Point to Rejection of Measure—General News in York County.

NORTH TORONTO, June 3.—(Special.)—It is questionable if any project ever submitted to the property owners of North Toronto has evoked less sympathy and less favorable comment than that of the Suburban and Water bylaw, which judgment will be passed by the duly qualified electorate.

Through the town little interest has been aroused and there has been a singular lack of information from first to last in which the ratepayers could have been kept in the picture. The council wanted to kill the project in its initial stages but could not have adopted a more successful method. The bylaw, however, is a matter of fact the town council have evolved the idea in question, and wedded as they are to it, are evidently determined to carry it through. It is a reflection on their judgment in the matter. They have, if the views of a large section of the representative business men of the town are any criterion, greatly misjudged the temper of the people.

Rate Value Too High.
The feature of the present campaign is the long and labored efforts of the so-called local, subsidized, official organ to explain away the opposition around town to the project. In this week's issue appears a presumably authentic interview with Chairman Peers of the board of works committee, in which the latter reveals at great length the ins and outs of the bylaw. In this interview Chairman Peers is quoted as saying:

"For the land required to enlarge our present plant, control over two-thirds of this water in the stream and part of the surrounding area are asked to pay $2000 per acre, or at the rate of $10 per foot. Most people know that for similar property on the west side of Yonge street, about as far from the car line as the properties of Alexander Gardens are asking $50 per foot."

Assuming the chairman to have been correctly quoted, how does he reconcile his estimate of $10 a foot for land more than half a mile away from Yonge street in a ravine with the assessed value of some of his own land on Kensington avenue, an open thoroughfare, at $12 a foot? And not alone Chairman Peers but others in the board of works committee are asked to justify the low rate. The chairman's comparison between the Suburban and Alexander Gardens is too far from the mark to need serious consideration.

Ex-Mayor Talks.
As against the reckless statements of Councilor Murphy on Saturday night, the opinion of the veteran ex-mayor, John Fisher, is given. The latter says: "The reservoirs constructed by the town to collect the water supply for pumping are not only unsightly, but they are a source of danger to the public. The sides of which are composed of planks cut in

FORCING YOURSELF TO TAKE FOOD

The Tortures of Indigestion Banished by the Tonic Powers of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

"Victims of indigestion" have small choice between two evils, on the one hand a starved diet, which means great weakness and depression of spirits, and on the other, hand forcing themselves to take nourishment, only to suffer the tortures inflicted by each meal.

In the search for a cure they find common medicines upset the stomach and render the food more difficult to digest. Laxatives are violent and weakening, and so-called "pre-digested foods" merely ease the cause of the trouble and the stomach steadily grows weaker.

The common sense way of curing indigestion is the Dr. Williams' way—the making of good blood by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that give tone to the weakened system and invigorate the distressed digestive organs. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have cured thousands of the worst cases of indigestion through their simple tonic treatment and one excellent example of these cures is the case of Miss M. E. C. Rogers, of Sorel, Quebec, who writes: "For upwards of nine years I have suffered almost continuously the tortures of indigestion. At times I had no appetite; at others there was a craving for food, but whatever I took caused me the greatest pains. As the result of the aches, and I grew pale and weak. I tried many different medicines; some gave me a little relief, but none gave me any permanent benefit until I began using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I had only taken these a few weeks when I found such help as I had not found before. The pains after eating gradually disappeared, my appetite grew better, and after using the Pills for a couple of months I found myself completely cured, and have not since had a twinge of the trouble. I gratefully recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to all who suffer from any form of indigestion."

Through their action on the blood Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure such troubles as anaemia, indigestion, sick headaches, rheumatism and all forms of nervous troubles, such as neuritis, St. Vitus' dance, and partial paralysis. These Pills are especially valuable to growing girls and women and cure the headaches, aches and other pains known only to them. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

TERMS OF EXPORT OF FORT FRANCES POWER

Parliament passed an act purporting to empower the company to construct the necessary works, and provided that in the event of dispute as to the prices of power on the Canadian side, the Dominion Board of Railway Commissioners should have authority to regulate them. The act also required the company to provide on the Canadian side an amount of power equal to that provided on the American side, but if there should not be a demand for power on the Ontario shore, the board was authorized to permit the company to divert the whole or any part of such unemployed energy to the United States.

At the session of 1908, the Ontario legislature passed an act on all fours with that of the Dominion Parliament, except that the Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario in Council was to be the arbitrator instead of the Dominion Board of Railway Commissioners.

Lack of Demand.

The company, having completed the works and installed the plant for power, the development of the power was little or no demand for power on the Canadian side. They accordingly asked at Ottawa for permission to export 6000 horse-power to the American side. After hearing the parties the railway board made an order permitting the company to export this quantity, subject to the consent of the Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario in Council. The company applied to the Ontario Government for permission, and all parties were heard by the executive council, the only objection coming from the Town of Fort Frances, which was apprehensive that the company might use the power to build the company on the American side at the expense of Fort Frances.

It will be seen that the provisions of both the Ontario and the Dominion acts authorizing the diversion of power to the United States, contemplated that a situation might arise in which power developed by the company was not required in Ontario and would remain idle and unused unless they were permitted to export it. That situation has, in fact, arisen, and the executive council has been passed by the Government of Ontario permitting the company to export not more than 6000 horse-power to the United States. The order, however, obliges the company to keep constantly available on the Canadian side at least 1000 horse-power, and if at any time the Canadian side requiring the whole or any part of the 6000 horse-power, then on the demand the government will be required to use the Canadian side.

A Bond For $50,000.

The company gives a guarantee bond for $50,000, as liquidated damages, if any such order is not given, and if the company fails to return the power to the Canadian side. Further, and as an absolute remedy, in the event of the company not complying promptly, the government has the right to place the sheriff or other officer in charge of the company's premises and cut the connection to the power plant, and to stop the exportation of power.

To sum up—one-half the full power developed at the falls is to be available on the Canadian side if required, but there is always to be, whether required or not, at least one-half the full power, and available, and in the event of a demand arising for more than 1000 horse-power, it is to be immediately provided up to the full quantity, viz., one-half the full power developed at the falls, and at a price to the Canadian consumer to be in every case fixed by the hydro-electric commission.

No Force.
Hon. Mr. Cochrane added that any or all the conditions relating to this matter were available for inspection at any time.

NEWS TO WILLIAM MACKENZIE

President of C. N. R. Knows Nothing of Terminal Plans for Montreal.

"I don't know anything about it." This is what William Mackenzie had to say last night concerning the despatch from Montreal that the Canadian Northern was spending millions in the acquisition of a large site for a central terminal, including the land occupied by the St. James' Methodist Church on St. Catherine street and other lots extending nearly to Sherbrooke street, and that the site would be reached by a tunnel under Mount Royal.

The president of the railway laughed when the despatch was quoted.

Quoting a noted military expert, Col. Merritt said Canada was worse off than India for defense.

"We can and should properly appeal to the women to do all they can to assist in this movement," he concluded.
