IN THE SENATE

Consolidation of Railway Statutes Given Rush Position

Ottawa, Feb. 21.—The government is proceeding with a bill for the consolidation of the railway statutes over which there was such a long and bitter fight last session that the measure failed to pass before prorogation.

In the senate yesterday Sir James Loughheed, government leader, re-introduced this bill immediately upon the opening of the stage where a pro forma bill, which asserts the right of parliament to take up other business before the speech from the throne, is traditionally offered. It is believed this is the first time a measure has been introduced at this stage in the Canadian parliament.

Three new senators were introduced, Hon. P. E. Blondin, Senator J. G. Turfitt, and Senator M. J. O'Brien.

NEW YORK GREETED ITS BLACK WATCH

Three Thousand Negro Veterans Marched to Strains of Jazz Band

New York, Feb. 21.—Keeping step to the "jazz music" of their famous band, led by Lieut. James R. Europe, 3,000 smiling negro soldiers, comprising the 888th Central Postal Directory, known as New York's own "Black Watch," marched through the city streets yesterday to receive the city's official welcome to returning troops. Col. Wm. C. Hayward, their commander, and 116 men wore the French war cross and other decorations awarded for conspicuous gallantry in action.

Carrying Springfield rifles and wearing trench stained clothes and steel helmets, some of which had been perforated with enemy bullets, the men who were brought here from Camp Upton this morning, made a fine appearance as they marched sixteen abreast up Fifth avenue to 110th street, and then through to Lenox avenue up to 144th street, through the Harlem district in which many of the men have their homes.

Governor Smith, former Governor Whitman and high army, navy and municipal officials reviewed the troops from a gaily decorated stand at Fifth avenue and 60th street. Relatives and friends of the men in the regiment were also given seats in the several reviewing stands along the line of march, and they gave them a noisy welcome.

WILL TAKE STEPS TO ESTABLISH MILK STATION

Further development of child welfare plans were considered yesterday afternoon at the annual meeting of the Victorian Order of Nurses, held in the vestry of Trinity church. The subject will be dealt with by the board of management, which was re-elected. The board will elect officers later.

Sentinel J. W. Daniel and Mrs. George F. Smith were elected delegates to the annual meeting of the national body to be held at Ottawa. The meeting decided that a milk station is necessary and steps will be taken to establish one.
