DOORS CLOSED IN BOY CASE

Will be Disposed of Tomorrow—Officials and Others Express Their Views

The case against six boys charged with stealing from various stores in the city was resumed in the juvenile court this morning behind closed doors and after the evidence of several more witnesses was taken some very forcible remarks were made in the court room by the magistrate and others who are interested in the welfare of the city and are agitating for moral reforms.

J. King Kelley, K. C., quoted from the Child's Protection Act dealing with the responsibility of parents and the rights of officials to inquire into cases of boys up to fourteen or girls up to sixteen who are seen in the streets after seven o'clock in winter or nine o'clock in summer without their parents or guardian.

Rev. W. R. Robinson referred to the prevalence of the cigarette habit among boys in the city and five out of the six admitted that they were cigarette smokers. Mr. Robinson spoke of the fact of small boys smoking in the public streets and that apparently no effort was being made to have the offenders punished. In fact he said that he had often seen small boys smoking in the presence of the policemen. He said that if parents did their duty these boys would have been kept in at night, and that the parents could have and should have found out where the boys got the articles they had.

Adjutant Cummings said that the Children's Protection Act was in operation in Hamilton, Ont., and was similar to ours and if enforced in St. John as it should be, conditions would probably be as good as those in Hamilton as far as the children were concerned.

J. Boyd McMann, truant officer, spoke of the work he had in connection with getting boys to go to school and said that when they were playing truant, the parents, instead of assisting him, usually shielded the boys. Mr. McMann spoke of the favorable state of conditions on the West Side where the law was enforced by Sergeant Finley in regard to keeping the children off the street. He said that Sergeant Finley would report to him as to any boys seen in the street in the afternoons when they should be at school. There had been no cases of truancy reported from the West Side since the first of the term and that during the previous term the record for the West End was very creditable.

The magistrate commented strongly on conditions existing in the streets and called upon the police to see that the law laid down in the Child's Protection Act should be enforced. He also severely criticized parents in allowing their boys and girls to run the streets especially at night.

The boys were remanded again and the magistrate said he would consider how he should dispose of them tomorrow. He intimated that he would not be able to deal lightly with two of them, Frank Nyberg and Arthur Kelly.

Evidence was given yesterday after-noon by Mrs. Jones who made the arrests and merchants and clerks who told of the thefts and, in some cases, identified the boys and the stolen goods. The magistrate commented severely upon the police allowing such small boys to be out so late at night. He also blamed the parents for their lack of oversight and said that in several of the cases the parents were more to blame than the boys.

Sergeant Finley told of waiting with Policeman Briggs until midnight for Colohan to return to his home, to arrest him. The boy had articles which he confessed were stolen from J. M. Roche & Co., Ltd., Emerson & Fisher, Ltd., Woolworth's and M. V. Paddock's stores. The police went to the Nyberg home and took the two boys. Donald admitted stealing from T. G. Allan's King street, West End, Blake and Johnston's, West End, F. V. Woolworth's & Co's, M. V. Paddock and R. J. Cox's harness shop, Frank admitted stealing from W. Tremaine Gard's and from Epstein & Co., Union street. The sergeant recovered several articles and also a quantity of goods which they said McClavery had placed under their steps. McClavery had some stolen articles in his possession and admitted taking them from Allan Gundry's store. He had sold a flash light which the police have recovered. Wilson and Kelly were arrested in Rockland road about one o'clock in the morning. They were returning from West St. John and Wilson said he knew the other boys had been stealing but denied that he had.

Evidence regarding the thefts from the stores was given by Miss Florence Halpin of Allan Gundry's, Miss Graham of Blake & Johnston's, W. O. Stapleton of Woolworth's, M. V. Paddock, R. J. Cox, Arthur Alway of Roche's and H. D. McCarthy of Gray's shoe store.

SIXTY BOYS ORGANIZE AT EVERY DAY CLUB WITH OWN OFFICERS

Enter Into Project With Enthusiasm and Successfully Launch Organization

Sixty boys assembled at the Every Day Club last night, organized themselves into a boys' club, elected officers and appointed committees to have charge of the room and the various games each evening, and thus successfully launched an organization which promises to be of much benefit. Of course there is a small executive of citizens and a competent caretaker to make suggestions to the boys until they are thoroughly organized.

They entered into the spirit of the proceedings with great enthusiasm, and the election of officers was keenly contested. The boys decided that they would make a nominal weekly charge for membership, so small as to be within the reach of every boy and Harry Scott, the very efficient caretaker of the hall, was unanimously chosen as the treasurer of the fund, which is to be used to get little things that may be necessary.

There are six committees, each consisting of three boys, who have charge of the games and tables and each committee will frame rules, and these will be enforced by the united energy of the club. These lads have had no previous experience in organization, but their enthusiasm is good to see. Mr. Howard, physical director of the Y. M. C. A., has promised to assist the executive in getting leadership for a part of two evenings each week in physical drill for the boys, and it is hoped that individuals and organizations will volunteer now and then to go down and give the boys an occasional half hour of bright entertainment. This club would seem to offer an opportunity to those who are interested in boys and in encouraging them to avoid the temptations of the street.

HUSBAND AND WIFE; THE LATTER FORMERLY OF THIS CITY, DROWNED IN THE WEST

Miss Elizabeth Furlong yesterday received a telegram from Rupert Sharpe, of Montreal, stating that his sister, Mrs. Louis Jones, and her husband, the president of a bank in Santa Barbara, Cal., had been drowned, but no further particulars were given. It is feared that they were victims of the floods now devastating that part of California.

Mrs. Jones was formerly Miss Elizabeth Sharp, of this city, and had three brothers, Rupert, of Montreal; Otto, of Upper Canada, and LeBaron, in Brooklyn, N. Y.; and two sisters, Mrs. LeNoir of Halifax and Miss Robena in Montreal. Mr. and Mrs. Jones had three children, the youngest only three months old.

Mrs. Jones was educated in the Sacred Heart Convent here, and then went to the Lowell General Hospital in Lowell, Mass., where she became a professional nurse. It was there she met Mr. Jones. She had travelled extensively, one journey being through Europe and the Holy Land. While in Rome she had the privilege of an audience with Pope Pius X.

Many friends here were shocked in reading in the Telegraph that she and her husband had met death by drowning.
