He was in Valcartier on Monday to see his brother, Dr. G. G. Corbet, who is to go to the front with the medical corps. Mr. Corbet was much impressed with what he saw at Valcartier. He said the boys were all in great spirits and were very eager to get to Europe and take their places in the great struggle. Soldiers all were looking well. He said there were all sorts of rumors as to the date when the soldiers would sail, but nothing definite was known. In passing through Montreal he saw twenty steamers in the Montreal he saw twenty steamers in the number of sheep raised by Canadian farmers.

Increased production in hogs can be brought about more quickly than in any other class of live stock, and consequently should receive immediate attention.

Animal production on the farm is desirable because it increases the fertility and crop-raising ability of the soil. Good prices are sure to be obtained for any surplus which farmers will have to sell on account of the inevitable shortage of Supply resulting from war conditions in
