Main aisle of Hudson's Bay Company's Department Store, Calgary, Alberta, showing Dominion Battleship Linoleum floor, laid in August, 1913.

Ten Years of Heavy Traffic

Ten years under the heaviest shopping traffic and still unimpaired—a record that is typical of the service DOMINION BATTLESHIP LINOLEUM gives. This durable, attractive, comfortable floor is giving similar service every day in stores, banks, halls, public buildings, colleges, schools and offices throughout Canada.

Quiet and restful, with its comfortable, resilient treading surface, DOMINION BATTLESHIP LINOLEUM is a great aid in imparting that "atmosphere" so much desired in these types of buildings; it induces all around satisfaction.

DOMINION BATTLESHIP LINOLEUM

permanently solves most flooring problems. Its smooth, sanitary, seamless surface cannot harbour dirt or germs. Occasional use of a reliable floor wax removes dust and keeps the surface in ideal condition.

When properly applied with waterproof cement DOMINION BATTLESHIP LINOLEUM affords a perfect flooring which wears indefinitely.

Made in plain shades of brown, green, terra-cotta and grey. Special colours for large contracts.

Mrs. Tupper Foster's Fillet Recipe

Fry sliced bacon until crisp. Remove from pan to oven. Wipe Smoked Fillets thoroughly and dredge with flour pepper. Fry in hot bacon fat till a rich brown. Remove to hot platter and cover with sauce made of the brown bacon fat, flour and cream. Garnish with crisp bacon and parsley.

National Smoked Fillets were the first known in Canada, being introduced in 1910 and creating a furor from coast to coast. Made from the tenderloin of best shore haddock and cod. No bones, no skin, no waste—delicious and economical because clear meat. Ask for them at your grocer's, butcher's, or fish dealer's.
