Price of Flour
(Halifax Herald)

It is interesting and satisfactory that the flour prices are at the present time as low as they have been for the last two years. Yesterday the wholesale quotations were: Ontario, $5.85; Manitoba, high grade, $6.00. Merchants, too, were confident that the bottom had not yet been reached and indications give them the opinion that $5 and $5.75 may be reached.

New Industry For Halifax

Maritime Merchant: For some time there have been rumours that a company organized for the purpose of building under water craft destroyers was about to be established in Dartmouth, N.S. We learn now that it is a branch of a New York firm which has a capitalization of $5,000,000. The news on the street is that the new plant will give employment to about 200 hands; a most important industrial acquisition for Dartmouth.

Railway Workers Challenge Conscriptio

London, Sept. 17.—During a discussion in the Commons this afternoon James Henry Thomas, Laborite, Assistant General Secretary of the Amalgamated Society of Railway Servants, declared that every lodge of the Railway Union has informed the Executive Committee that on the introduction of Conscriptio the men would stop work.

If conscriptionists want an industrial revolution, he said, let them proceed with their agitation.

Allies' Soon to Get Gallipoli

London, Sept. 17.—The correspondent "Daily Chronicle" at Athens telegraphs:—

"Interesting information has reached me from thoroughly reliable sources with regard to the position facing Germany in the matter of furnishing fresh help for the hard pressed Turks. The Turkish Mission which had been lately in Beñin in order to point out to the military authorities there the circumstances of the Ottoman Empire which make resistance to the end of September an extremely difficult matter in the absence of effective assistance from Germany.

"The Germans recognize that time is now against them in this particular zone of the war area, and I am told by diplomats that the belief in Vienna is that Gallipoli Peninsula at least will be in the Allies' hands at an early date."

Germany's Loss Submarine Boats

London, Sept. 17.—The Germans have lost twenty submarines since the beginning of the war, according to an editorial note in "Motor Ship and Motor Boat," while the British losses have been only seven, including the E-7, the destruction of which was announced today.

When the war commenced, the paper declares, Germany had eleven sea-going submarines and sixteen of smaller type, while up to June 1st ten new boats had been added. The assertion is made that the Germans have now only fourteen sea-going underwater boats, two of them are in the Mediterranean.

London, Sept. 18.—Roumania is expected to enter the war. The massing of German and Austrian troops on the Roumanian frontier has resulted in the Balkan nations making preparation for eventualities. A large part of her army already has been mobilized and recruits in other countries have been ordered home.

Letter From Private Crossman

Aldershot, August 17th, 1915

My dear father,—Just a few lines to let you know we are all well. Well, I wrote you last week. Did you receive it yet? Well, I came back from London yesterday. I had a great time, and I can tell you I saw something. I went up Saturday after dinner. It is only one hour's run.

We got off at Waterloo Station. From Waterloo you can take the underground railway to all parts of London. It only costs 2 pennies. You enter those subways from the streets. You go down a winding stairs about 1,000 feet. You can also go up and down in the lifts. I often heard that you would lose your way in London. But I can't see how you can, because you can take these tubes and go wherever you like. I saw Westminster Abbey, the White House, Buckingham Palace, St. Paul's Cathedral, House of Parliament, Tower Bridge, White Hall, Queen Victoria's memorial, and various other places of interest.

I was also in Trafalgar Square. I am sending you some views of these places. I visited the Strand, Piccadilly and Leicester Square. I can tell you I saw something. Who should have ever thought that I should be in London. The heaviest hail storm ever I saw was in London on Sunday, accompanied by thunder and lightning. The lightning struck two 8-storey stone buildings and knocked part of the corner, near the roof, off. The street was full of stones. It did not last long. It turned out a beautiful evening.

I was up in Hyde Park where there was a Band Concert. The women suffragettes held a recruiting meeting. They can talk some. A Canadian V. C. spoke. He told the men straight that they were cowards. He said if they wanted Conscriptio written across the flag, the Canadians did not. I sang out "here, here." They all turned toward me and wondered what Regiment I belonged to. I had a crowd around me asking where I came from. I told them my home was alongside Canada, 3,000 miles from here.

Well father, we are moving on Thursday or Sunday for Plymouth, and there we take a ship for Alexandria, Egypt. I expect they will send us up the Dardanelles later on. We got a new uniform, light khaki and helmets. We look fine. As you know by my last letter I have been posted from E. Co. to D Co. Capt. O'Brien came here today to go second in command of our company. I am glad of it. Capt. Charlie Ayre is not going yet. We got a new pair of boots today. I was just talking to Reg Crane. He is fine. He was right glad to see me. He expects to go to the Dardanelles. We had a long talk. Mr. Nat Snow was down today. We have a new equipment. We have the web now instead of the leather. It is better, too. Reg Crane is down in Dover. He is on leave.

We signed on again yesterday for the duration of war. You know we only signed on for one year in St. John's. There are a few who have not signed on. I could never face home again, father, unless I see the thing through. Don't worry about me, father. By God's help and your prayers I shall come home again safe and sound. So tell mother not to worry about me. I am going with a light heart. Hoping that the family will keep up stout hearts and always hope for the best. Kennedy is on the transport now. He leaves this evening with the advance guard. Phillips and Stan Cook are going, so we are all together. I must close now with lots of love to you, mother and all the children and all enquiring friends. Give the children a kiss for me.

From your loving soldier son,
BARR.

Body of Hiawatha Victim Arrives

The body of the late Captain Clarke, one of the victims of the Hiawatha tragedy, arrived by the Florizel last week and was forwarded to Burin for burial. Mate Hussey, who accompanied the remains, was the only one of the crew who escaped death or serious injury, and the tragedy will never be forgotten by him. At the time of the accident he was standing aft by the wheel and to this he owes his life. Kirby was sitting by the rail near the cabin house, and Hooper and Saunders were standing by the main hatch. Cook Farewell had gone to the forecastle to light the fire for breakfast, the time being 6.30 a.m. The explosion occurred soon after he reached there. Kirby was thrown overboard his leg being broken by a flying plank, while Hooper and Saunders; the mate thinks, were killed instantly. Fortunately for Kirby he was not rendered unconscious, and managed to haul himself up by the wharf. Hussey, in the meantime, had rushed to the cabin door and shouted to the captain, who was then in the act of making his way up the companion enveloped in flames. Hussey pulled the burning clothes from his body and he and the captain jumped overboard, but when they reached the wharf the captain was suffering so terribly that he refused to allow himself to be helped up the wharf. Hussey then jumped into a dory, and putting a strap under the captain's arm, towed him to the landward. He was hurried to the Hospital as soon as possible, but died two hours afterwards.

SUFFERED EVERYTHING

For Years, Restored To Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Canadian women are continually writing us such letters as the two following, which are hearty expressions of gratitude for restored health:

Glanford Station, Ont.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and never found any medicine to compare with it. I had ulcers and falling of womb and doctors did me no good. I suffered dreadfully for years until I began taking your medicine. I also recommend it for nervousness and indigestion." — Mrs. HENRY CLARK, Glanford Station, Ont.

Chesterville, Ont.—"I heard your medicines highly praised, and a year ago I began taking them for falling of womb and ovarian trouble. "My left side pained me all the time and just before my periods which were irregular and painful it would be worse. To sit down caused me pain and suffering and I would be so nervous sometimes that I could not bear to see any one or hear any one speak. Little specks would float before my eyes and I was always constipated. "I cannot say too much for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills for there are no medicines like them. I have taken them and I recommend them to all women. You may publish this testimonial." — Mrs. SYBEN J. MARTIN, Chesterville, Ontario, Canada.
