Selling For Cash

The ruling principle of this store "Cash and One Price." Possibly you know what a dangerous thing credit is, dangerous because of the temptation to buy, and keep on buying the desire increasing with each added purchase. Speculating on what the future may bring to meet the desires of the present. To pay as you go makes you rich or as well as happy. This store's customers never have to exert the criticism of being adorned with unpaid-for finery. Paying as you go is the first rung in the ladder on the way to prosperity. Don't you think it's time you put in the rung and stood on it. We give you your money back if you are not satisfied with your purchase.

FLIES TO THE BREEZE

The New Flag for the Central School has Arrived.

The brand new flag for the Central school is floating over that building today. It has just arrived. A beautiful one it is, the Canadian ensign, 24 feet long by 12 feet wide. It is made of the best English bunting. The retail price was $35, but the school got it through Thomas Stone & Son, at net cost, so they have it at wholesale price. The school board gave $10 to the flag fund. The balance was made up by voluntary contributions from the teachers and pupils of the school. They have 675 pupils, on roll, and of these 435 contributed.

The flag will be hoisted in future only on special occasions and on holidays.

COSTLY HUSBAND.

Woman Loses $25,000 a Year by Marrying Him.

She Received That Sum as Alimony From a Former Husband.

New York, April 17.—Mrs. Marion Treat McKay, who is to be married, Brueening, of the German embassy, will have to surrender a yearly income of $25,000, paid to her by Gordon McKay, from whom she obtained a divorce in 1902. Mr. McKay is a man of great wealth. He is more than 70 years old and his liberal benefactions have frequently attracted attention to him. His fortune was made in a sewing machine patent. Mrs. McKay and her husband had lived apart for some time before they were divorced. A Rhode Island court gave Mrs. McKay the decree on the strength of a deposition made by an Italian, who had been employed by the McKays during the time they travelled in Europe. It is said that the husband refused to defend the case and preferred to lose it rather than attack his wife.
