Maine, and one of the best known educationists in the Pine Tree state. Deceased was a sufferer from heart disease, and though the despatch did not state what caused death, it is assumed his old ailment proved rapid-ly fatal. Prof. Elder was a native of Hantsport, N. S., where he visited regularly, and was particularly well known throughout the sister province. In a letter to friends in the city re-ceived only a day or so ago, he stated his intention, of visiting Hantsport in a week or so. PROF. ELDER DEAD. Charles H. S. . HE SLEPT TOO LONG. A Carleton Clergyman Nearly Miss the Chance of Making Two Hearts Happy.

Hearts Happy. (Star, Wednesday.) There was a wedding in Carleton yesterday which narrowly escaped be-ing postponed, but which by the should-be officiating ciergyman was luckily carried through. The ceremony was to take place in siven due notice, but the best laid plans of mice and men, etc., and minis-ters are just as fond of sleeping as are other men. This one was at any rate and his extra forty winks created dis-may in the hearts of the wedding party. This one was at any rate and his extra forty winks created dis-ments in the hearts of the wedding party.

The bride and groom, with attendant friends and relatives went to the shurch. At the appointed instant they appeared in front of the altar and in followed, they waited expectantly for the entrance of the minister from the vestry door. But he didn't come and more than one face was seen signs of anxiety. Some one said that the olergyman was in the vestry but this was a false alarm. He was nowhere in the church and the search only re-witted in a waste of precious minutes. A messenger was then hurriedly de-syntheted to the home of him who was patched to the home of him who was been appreciated and the search only re-winster. In exactly seven minutes from the inster. The bride and groom caught their the admiration of man. The bride and groom caught their tain and went away happy.

ing of working men held last evening, viz.: Resolved, that we would call the attention of the gentlemen who have addressed us tonight and others asso-ciated with them in the Lord's Day Alliance to the immense amount of Sunday work-much of it unnecessary --that has been carried on in past winters, and invite their careful at-tention to the same in the hope that they will devise means to prevent its continuance, so that the labor men may have the opportunity like others to enjoy Sunday privileges. Therefore resolved, that we agree to take whatever steps may be necessary toward securing respect for the Chris-tian Sabbath and for the law of this province, and meantime would express the earnest hope that the shippers will agree without compulsion to respect alike the Sunday law and the rights of their employes, and we would refer this matter to the sub-executive for such further consideration and action as it may deem wise and necessary.

EVENING SESSION.

EVENING SESSION.  At the evening session Rev. Canon Richardson was the first speaker. He thought the public should adopt a tem-perate attitude toward the matter of Sunday observance. It was not the object of the Alliance to force the peo-ple to be religious, but to make it pos-sible for everyone, rich and poor alike, to observe Sunday. There was an ich prevalent that the ohurches were for the capitalists alone. On the other hand they exist-ed for the laboring man as well as for the capitalists, and he hoped that the false impression which seemed to be prevalent among the laborers would speedily become rectified. REV. C. W. HAMILTON.

Ible for everyone, rich and poor alike, o observe Sunday.
There was an idea prevalent that the nomination for president. In electing a successor a high appreciation was a successor a h nominations, including Roman Catholic as well as Protastants. Rev. Fr. Gay-nor, Rev. Fr. McDonald and Arch-bishop O'Brien were spoken of as be-ing active workers in the alliance. The speaker then stated that the at-torney generals of some of the pro-vinces had ordered that all persons de-secrating the Sabbath be prosecuted. With some few exceptions that giant evil of Sunday excursions had been made a thing of the past. In the west the transportation of produce on Sunday was also a thing that was dis-approved by public opinion, notwith-standing the great rush in the west to ship grain. He knew of only three or four instances where an attempt in the past year was made to do so on the Sabbath.

opposed to working on Sunday, and would ask the authorities to stop the doing of manual labor on the Lord's day. "(Sgd.) MOULDER'S UNION." Similar resolutions were received from the Order of Railway Clerks, the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Jciners, the I. C. R. freight handlers, the St. John Teamsters' Protective Association, and the Cigar Makers' Union.

REV. W. C. GAYNOR, PRESIDENT.

REV. W. C. GAYNOR, PRESIDENT. The St. John branch of the Alliance met at 7.30, when reports for the year were submitted and the following offi-cers were elected: President, Rev. Father Gaynor: vice-presidents, H. C. Tilley, W. H. Coates; secretary-trea-surer, Rev. W. J. Kirby. Rev. Dr. Wilson pleaded age and a multiplicity of duties as reasons for declining the nomination for president. In electing a successor a high appreciation was expressed of the valuable services he rendered to the Alliance. The Alliance also felt very grateful to the retiring secretary, Rev. A. H.
