HAVE YOU MADE A MISTAKE

"We all make them occasionally and they sell other than to convert them into when we discover our mistakes the best money. As a matter of fact these thing we can do is to correct them with as little delay as possible. Many honest people have been induced to buy inferior cream separators because of false statements made by the manufacturers and their agents. Others have bought cheaply constructed machines for which great claims are made and which are advertised as being sold at a great reduction in price by mail order houses and others who have no interest in the separator proposition.

A Wise Mothers Story

Let all Mothers and Daughters Read Carefully and Profit By It

"I am convinced," writes Mrs. A. B. Hopeford from St. John, "that a majority of young girls who die of consumption do so because their mothers neglected their health at the critical time when carefulness insures vigor and sound health. If a girl's health is neglected from her eleventh to sixteenth year her body will be weak and she becomes a ready victim of typhoid, anaemia and in many cases consumption itself. In her sixteenth year my youngest daughter showed signs of failing strength. Some dyspeptic troubles developed, her heart became weak and palpitation frightened her dreadfully. She was irregular in the important bodily functions and rapid loss in weight and a ruddy complexion paled to a rapid decline. She disliked making her troubles known to our doctor, a feeling I felt I should respect, and so by good fortune I was led to use Ferrozone with most gratifying results. My neighbor next door, Mrs. Woods, had found Ferrozone so good in nervousness that she persuaded me that it would restore Flossie's health, and from the time the second box was commenced her improvement was constant. She is now a big, strong girl, ruddy and plump, able to study hard and to take her share of household duties. I am an earnest advocate of Ferrozone. We all use it now as a tonic, as it is certainly woman's best friend."

All dealers sell Ferrozone, 50 cents per box or six boxes for $2.50; procure a supply to-day.

A smooth-looking stranger recently placed a number of penny-in-the-slot machines in a certain town. The machines bore the following inscription:

The greatest known aid to digestion. Drop a penny in the slot. Push, then pull.

At the top of the machine was a handle to be pushed, then pulled, and many townspeople who could not resist the temptation of trying some new device for the same reason that Timothy took the wine—for his stomach's sake—dropped in their pennies and took a push and pull out of the machine. But that was all. No result followed, and there was some talk of blowing open the hoarded treasure.

At the end of the week the agent reappeared unlocked the machines, garnered the wealth and retired, after explaining that "exercise was the greatest thing for digestion in the world."

The crowd was so paralyzed that the agent escaped unharmed.

Kept His Word

He was a little man, but he had a loud voice and evidently wanted everyone to know what he said. He and a companion—who, he said to his credit, seemed ashamed of the company he was in—stood in the hotel rotunda one Saturday night. The little fellow was talking about Ireland, and he said many hard things concerning the country and the people.

A great big man stood by listening to the little fellow's vapors. He merely smiled, until the little fellow said in a very loud tone:

"Show me an Irishman and I'll show you a coward."

Then the big fellow slipped up and, touching the little fellow on the shoulder said in a heavy bass voice:

"What's that you said?"

"I said, show me an Irishman and I'll show you a coward," said the little fellow, whose knees were shaking under him.

"Well, I'm an Irishman," said the big man.

"You are an Irishman? Well, and a smile of joy fanned over the little fellow's countenance as he saw a hole through which he could crawl, 'I'm a coward.' And he set off at a run.

Candid Friend: "As your husband died intestate, you will, of course, get a third."

Merry Widow: "Oh, I hope to get a fourth. He was my third, you know."

Nellie (calling to her sister): "I'm going to make some lemonade, Mary. Where is the squeezer?"

Mary (in a brown study): "The squeezer? Oh, he hasn't arrived yet, but I'm expecting him any minute."

"Did Bibbs have any luck hunting lions in Africa?"

"Yes, Great Luck."

"How?"

"Didn't meet any lions?"
