APRIL 25.—On Wednesday evening last the church social was beld at the rectory and was well attended. The socials are a monthly institution and the amusements have been music, whist and "forty-fives." But a the rectory cards, of course, were not played, and games took their place. The "Musical Chair," with Mr. Burt's accompaniment on the violin, and "Finning the tail on the donkey," made the hours fly. The sociel was opened and closed with prayer, and broke up at ten o'clock, every one feeling sorry that such an entertaining and instructive evening had come to a end.

Mrs. H. A. Scovil, who has been ill for some time, was able to attend the social.
