

Dr. Lavolette's Syrup of Turpentine

The most palatable, the safest and most effective for young and old.

CURES (Coughs and Colds, Whooping-Cough, Croup, Asthma, Sore Throat, etc.)

Read what those who have used it say:

Mrs. John Bonet, 13 St. Germain St., Montreal, says: My three children suffered from a severe attack of the Croup. Three bottles of Dr. Lavolette's Syrup of Turpentine cured them all completely.

Mrs. J. Holmes, Levesque St., Montreal, says: My child three years old suffered from a severe attack of the Croup. My doctor prescribed Dr. Lavolette's Syrup of Turpentine; and the little child was cured.

Mrs. J. J. Macdonald, 149 Beaudry St., Montreal, says: I suffered for six weeks from a severe attack of Whooping-Cough, and I was completely cured by using three bottles of Dr. Lavolette's Syrup of Turpentine. I cannot speak too well of this wonderful preparation.

Your Druggist can procure it for you at a wholesale price or direct from the proprietor.

ST. ANDREWS.

(PROGRAMME for sale in St. Andrews by T. R. Wren.)

JAN. 14.—St. Andrews is very gay at present and we've had some very jolly times.

Mrs. G. H. Lamb issued invitations for a progressive whist party on Thursday last. It was a very pleasant affair. Prizes won by Mrs. G. Mitchell, of Woodstock and Miss A. O'Brien.

Mr. Will Richardson, the popular principal of our school, entertained his scholars with a sleigh drive and supper out at the log-cabin, at Chamcook Lake, on Monday.

What may be considered one of the most pleasant parties of the season was given at Kennedy's hotel Jan. 2nd, by four of our popular young ladies. Many pretty dresses were worn but space will only allow of those of the committee: Miss Margaret Burton wore sage green velvet; Miss L. Maloney, cream serge; Miss A. Kennedy, black satin, pink chiffon trimmings; Miss M. Macdonald, green velvet. The music which was furnished by home orchestra was excellent. Refreshments were served at twelve o'clock and the party broke up at two a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Thompson spent a few days in St. Stephen last week.

Invitations are out for a card party at Mrs. St. Stephen's.

Dr. Maloney will soon leave for Grand Manan, where he has an extensive practice.

Miss Sarah Maloney is visiting her friend, Miss B. Burton.

Another engagement is announced, but the date of wedding is indefinite.

Miss Jennie Kennedy expects to visit Ottawa during carnival week.

Miss Alice P. will spend some months in Montreal this winter.

I am glad to hear Mr. Robinson has recovered from his severe illness.

The young people are taking advantage of the happy hours, splendid skating and coasting and are mooning.

BILLY.

Wednesday last the children of the Presbyterian Sunday school had an entertainment in Memorial hall. A nice programme was carried out consisting of singing, dialogues, and recitations, which were well received.

Mr. R. W. Hamilton, of St. John, was in St. Andrews Wednesday and Thursday of last week. It almost seems as if I had to chronicle more sickness than fun this week, but hope that none of the illness will be very serious, and try to console ourselves as I have heard on one day after days ago, with "sure dear, it's the time of year for it." Among those who are ailing are Mr. Will Burton, his son Vere and Mr. Durell Grimmer's little daughter Annie.

Mrs. T. Williams is slowly improving in health. Miss Jessie Whitlock spent a few hours with friends here last Tuesday.

On Wednesday of last week, Mrs. Neville G. D. Parker entertained a merry party of little folks in celebration of the home-coming of her daughters, Bess and Daisy.

Miss Morrell has taken a school at the Lodge.

Mr. W. B. Morris came from St. Stephen on the Arbutus Thursday.

Miss L. Little is teaching at Masquah.

Mrs. G. Herbert Lamb held an all day last Thursday evening. The guests were at home last Thursday evening. The guests were at home last Thursday evening.

Mrs. A. H. Gilmer, M. P., Dan Gilmer, of Montreal, and John O'Brien, of St. George, have been making a flying visit to St. Andrews.

The many friends of Mrs. E. Andrews, Minister's Island, are glad to learn of her recovery from a severe illness.

Capt. and Mrs. Simpson have gone to Canada to live, much to the regret of their friends here.

Mr. J. Newton Brown, who has been the guest of Geo. F. Hibbard, Esq., leaves for Montreal to-day, in search of health and to have his eyes which were injured in an explosion, treated by a specialist. Mr. Brown will be accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Hibbard, who will go on to Boston and pay a visit to friends there.

Miss Balkam, of Eastport, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Burton.

For the last few weeks almost all of our young folks have been visiting occasionally at each other's houses and with the help of some older members of the different families, in the way of promoting and playing for them, have been learning to dance, the dancing leaves considerable to be desired, but they never miss having a good evening's amusement.

Rev. Canon Ketchum, D. D., has been suffering with neuralgia since last Friday. The service in All Saints church on Sunday were read morning and evening by Mr. G. Sydney MacMaster, in a very clear, pleasant voice.

Yesterday, Mr. J. W. Richardson gave a number of young people a sleigh drive to Chamcook Lake, where they enjoyed a most delightful time and partook of refreshments, provided by the young ladies of the party, enjoyed stories and games by the light of a blazing wood fire, and came home delighted with their entertainment.

Rev. Mr. Dewar of Nova Scotia, preached in the Kirk at both services on Sunday last.

Miss Bessie Richardson spent Sunday in St. Andrews.

Mr. William Conroy arrived from a sleigh drive. He is the guest of Mr. John Pyle.

I was much interested in Astra's article on crying, in last week's Progress, and when I came to think of the matter, I believe one of the most frequent looking women of my acquaintance is the very one who cries most readily.

ST. STEPHEN AND CALAIS.

(PROGRAMME for sale in St. Stephen by Master B. H. Trainer, and at the book store of St. W. and J. Yvonne & Co. in Calais at O. P. Truett.)

JAN. 16.—Collector and Mrs. Graham most pleasantly entertained at tea on Friday evening last, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Beard and several other friends.

A party of ladies took a sleigh ride to the Lodge on Tuesday and enjoyed a most delightful time. The ladies had a jolly outing and did not arrive home until quite late in the evening.

Mrs. T. J. Smith entertained a small party of young friends on Monday evening at her residence. Whist and fortune telling were the amusements provided and made a very merry evening.

Miss Alice Graham will entertain the T. Y. T. whist club at her home tomorrow evening.

Mrs. E. C. Young invited the Ladies' Art club to visit her on Saturday afternoon last, which they accepted and enjoyed a most charming time.

Rev. O. S. and Mrs. Newman entertained at the rectory on Monday evening a large party of young ladies. It was a most pleasant affair and thoroughly enjoyed by all who were there.

Misses Annie and Bessie Kirby gave a very pleasant tea party at their home, on Monday evening, for the pleasure of the Misses Stevens and their young niece, Miss Isa Orchard.

Mr. J. M. Scoville, of St. John, is in town this week on a business trip.

The Baptist congregation and Sunday school enjoyed a treat and musicale at their vestry on Tuesday evening. I hear it was a most delightful and satisfactory affair both to pastor, Rev. W. C. Goucher, and people.

Miss Minnie Haycock gave a very enjoyable whist party last evening at her home to a number of her young friends.

Mr. Lewis Dexter has gone to Boston to spend a few days with his mother, Mrs. C. F. Todd, who will soon leave that city for Baltimore, where she will spend the rest of the winter.

The Current News club met at Hawthorne hall, the residence of Judge Stevens last evening. There was a large attendance and several interesting and instructive subjects were vigorously discussed.

A "smooth and glorious time," was the careful and guarded answer given to Progress' correspondent when asking for a description of the German tea society men of St. Stephen, and Calais, arranged for their own enjoyment last Wednesday evening. It has been learned however, that whist and singing occupied the first part of the evening, and afterwards dancing, and an oyster supper at twelve o'clock. It probably was a most happy and enjoyable evening, but strange to say, the young ladies interested have a fixed idea that it was dull, immensely dull, and that the dancing was slow, as any rate those who know say the party dispersed at an early hour and very little is said about the glorious time by the "Neglected" who arranged and attended it.

Mrs. E. K. Ross and her daughter Miss Reta Ross left on Monday for Boston. Mrs. Ross will spend a few days in the city and Miss Reta will remain at the children's hospital, to take a course of training as a children's nurse. Miss Ross is one of our favorite young ladies and there are many regrets to lose her even for a short period of time.

Mrs. Frank McKenrie has given invitations to a friends' party at her residence tomorrow, to be held on the occasion of her young daughter's birthday.

Miss Maude McKenrie, of St. John, is visiting her sister, Mrs. George J. Clarke. Miss McKenrie has numerous friends here, who are delighted to see her in town again.

Mon. Llewellyn Powers, speaker of the house of representatives, at Annapolis, Maine, will make the opening and leading speech on Saturday, at the formal opening of our new steel bridge between our town and Calais. The exercises are to be of an international character, and it is expected there will be a number of visitors from out of town.

Dr. Seymour, of Calais, has been making a brief visit in St. John.

Mrs. J. A. Grimmer has gone to St. Andrews to visit her daughter, Mrs. G. Durell Grimmer.

Mrs. T. J. Smith has been spending the past three days in Calais with her friend, Mrs. Jo Ann Meredith.

The Thistles arrived from St. John, today, and a match game of curling is in progress at the curling rink this afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vose, of Boston, are visiting relatives in Millville.

Miss Alice Stevens has returned from St. George, where she has spent the last two months. Miss Stevens expects to leave at an early date for Boston.

Miss Alice Robinson has returned to Boston to resume her studies at the Potomac Gymnasium in that city.

Miss May Carter returned on Saturday afternoon, after spending three weeks in St. John and vicinity. Letters have been received from Hon. George F. Hill during the past week written from Seville, Spain on Christmas day. Mr. Hill is enjoying the exciting amusements of that country, and on Christmas day attended a bull fight. He has visited several other places of interest on the Mediterranean, and will not return to New Brunswick until late in March.

Miss Mabel Murchie and Mrs. Henry B. Eaton, are visiting St. John this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Bote have been spending several days in Machias.

Miss Harriet Knight, of Lancaster Mills, has been the guest of her friend, Mrs. A. E. Neill, during the past week.

Hon. G. A. Marchie and Hon. G. A. Curran have returned from a speed by train from West Ridge, to resume her studies at Harvard seminary.

Mr. Harry Partridge has recovered from his illness and is again able to attend to business.

Mrs. W. W. Tinsley is recovering from his illness. Mrs. Tinsley has returned from Montreal where she has resided for several years and will in the future make her home here. Mrs. Tinsley's numerous friends give her a hearty and glad welcome.

Rev. Mr. Thomas conducted the evening service and preached in Calais church on Sunday, while the pastor, Rev. O. S. Newman, took the services in St. Anne's church, Calais.

Miss Isa Orchard is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Lawson during this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Todd left on Saturday morning for Boston where they will spend a few days before leaving for Florida, where they will remain until spring.

Dr. Weldon, M. P. for Albert, spent Friday last in the city.

Miss Emma Marks spent last week in Truro with her friend, Miss Mabel Stokely.

Mr. C. E. A. Simonds, barrister of Fredericton, is in the city.

Mrs. S. S. Thorne, of St. John, was in the city for a day this week on her way home from a visit to friends in Amherst. While here Mrs. Thorne was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Martin, Alma street.

Mr. J. E. Bigelow, an enterprising merchant of Truro, spent Sunday in town.

Mr. D. L. Triton, of Pettitcodiac, was in town on Friday.

Mr. Fred R. Cole, of Montreal, was in the city last week on a business trip. Mr. Cole is being congratulated by his many friends, on his recent marriage.

Miss George Cole returned to Backville on Monday to resume her studies at the ladies' college.

Miss Temple, of Bedford, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. W. H. Watts, Alma street, was sent for to go home on Monday owing to the illness of her mother.

Miss Maude Fleming, of Newcastle, was in town for a few days last week, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. B. Fleming, Alma street.

Mrs. W. W. Lewis of Fredericton, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. I. L. Miller, Main street, returned to her home on Monday afternoon.

Mr. J. D. Phoney, M. P. P., of Richibucto, was in the city on Monday.

Rev. Father Carson, of Albert, spent Monday in town.

Mr. J. M. Lyons returned on Monday from Halifax.

The great question here now is whether we are going to have an hospital or not? The King's Daughters are working hard for it and they are certainly deserving of great credit for it is some thing Moncton is badly in need of.

The younger girls and boys seem to be having the best of it this winter, for the greater number of the parties given lately have been for them, and to add to their number. Mrs. C. J. Butcher gave a delightful dance last evening, at which those present enjoyed themselves immensely.

To-morrow afternoon Mrs. J. W. Smith will give an all home.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith leave the last of this month on an extended trip to the Southern States.

Mr. E. S. Oubon has been to Boston, he will be absent about a month.

Mr. J. L. Harris returned on Tuesday from Halifax.

A very sad event occurred here on Monday morning. Mr. Arthur L. Campbell, a promising young man of 24 years of age, died of a heart attack, while he was on his way to work. He was a member of the St. John's Athletic Club, and was a very popular person. His death was a great loss to the community.

Mr. Fred S. White, representing James Johnson & Co. Montreal, is in the city. He has many friends in Moncton who are pleased to see him on the road again. During his residence in Boston Mr. White was a regular purchaser of Progress, as the new stand on Tremont street.

Printers' Conventions are really the only satisfactory ones for better educated people. They come in many forms, Brown, Grey, Green, and Black. The most successful of these is the one held in Moncton, where the high grade of the work is well known. The Moncton Convention has been held for several years, and it is a most successful one. It is a most successful one.
