

happenings of the Week

THE St. John City society column is conducted by Mrs. J. Fenwick Fraser—Items for publication in this column should be forwarded to Mrs. Fraser, 43 Horsefield Street (Phone 676-32) not later than Thursday evening.

ternoon members started out making a house to house canvass and met with generous response from one and all. Mr. Paul Longley kindly offered his services and the services of his company the Dominion Trust Company for any clerical work or transferring of monies in connection with the trip or any other work taken up by the ladies of St. John during the week. The sum of $1,132.72 was sent to Fredericton by the local treasurer, Mrs. Simeon Jones.

Miss Lorna Kaye, Carleton street, who has been visiting at Moncton, returned home this week.

Mr. John Purdy of Chicago is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Purdy, Princess street.

We have had with us this week a great many distinguished visitors, the Dominion's Royal Commission, which has already travelled 30,000 miles, had intended to extend its trip all over Canada, but now has cancelled the trip and will return to England on account of the war. The members of the party were Sir Alfred E. Bateman, K. C. M. G., Sir Rider Haggard, Mr. and Mrs. T. Garnett, Mr. and Mrs. W. Lorimer, Mr. and Mrs. J. Tatlow and Miss Tatlow, Sir George Foster, K. C. M. G., Mr. D. Campbell, Hon. J. K. Sinclair, Sir Jan W. S. and Lady Landermann, Hon. E. R. Bowring, secretary, E. J. Harding, W. H. Green, Mr. Glenny, Mr. Bridgeman and Mr. C. H. Payne.

The St. Omer Commandery of the Knight Templars of Boston arrived in the city on Monday and were given freedom of the city by His Worship Mayor Frink. In the evening a reception was held by the local members in the Masonic hall. After a very enjoyable program of music and recitations a program of eleven dances followed. On Wednesday the local members entertained their guests up the river by the steamer Champlain where a clam bake was enjoyed. On Thursday evening a banquet was given at which His Honor Mayor Frink presided. Many of our citizens enjoyed the delightful concert given by the Commandery's band in King square on Thursday afternoon. The visitors left Friday on the Boston boat for Dorchester, Mass.

The provincial tennis tournament which was to have taken place in this city on Tuesday was postponed on account of the disagreeable weather until Wednesday when the show was brightly and throughout the day there was a large attendance of players and spectators. Luncheon and afternoon tea was served at the club, the local members of the visiting clubs. It is expected to finish this morning.

The marriage of Miss Muriel Davidson-Hamilton, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. Peters Hamilton, Moncton, to the Rev. John Vernon Young of Moncton, N. B., was celebrated at the home of Mrs. G. B. Symes Young of Quebec on Wednesday evening. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. John Vernon Young in the Church of St. John the Evangelist, Moncton.

Under the auspices of the local council of women a large number assembled at the Imperial Theatre on Wednesday afternoon, to form a permanent committee to render patriotic assistance during the war. After God save the King was rendered by the Imperial orchestra Mayor Frink explained the object of the meeting. Brief speeches were made by Mrs. T. H. Buck, president of the club, Lady Tatlow, Mrs. George McA. Bilzard, Colonel H. H. McLean, Colonel B. R. Armstrong and Captain Walter Harrison.

Mr. B. Piddoon sang a patriotic song in his usual fine style delighting the large audience. A number of young ladies took up the collections in bags made out of Union Jack flags which were very picturesque, quite a goodly sum being realized.

Miss Jeannette Bullock gave a delightful dance at her summer home, Westfield, on Thursday evening. Quite a number of the younger set automobiled up to Westfield to attend the dance.

Captain Maurice Forbes White left on Wednesday for Vancouver from where he will sail for India having received a cable to return at once.

Mr. John Chipman Jr. of Toronto arrived in the city this week to attend the tennis tournament.

Miss Hodge and Miss Massie, Fredericton, are guests at the Cosman House, Woodman's Point.

Miss Logan (Halifax) and Miss Thompson (Fredericton) are visiting Miss Crawford at her summer home, Woodman's Point.

Dr. J. H. Allingham and Mrs. Allingham arrived home from Gasquet on Friday.

Word has been received that Rev. J. A. MacKellan and Mrs. MacKellan expected to sail on Thursday from Liverpool for home and Mrs. Sillars Alward expected to leave yesterday from Liverpool.

The local chapters of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire received word on Saturday that the offer of the women of Canada to equip a hospital ship had been accepted by the admiralty, and the different chapters of the Daughters of the Empire of this city were instructed to organize an immediate campaign to raise all the money they could from the women of St. John and vicinity and forward it to the provincial chapter at Fredericton on Thursday. It was decided to ask for contributions of not more than 25 cents from every woman who came to contribute and on Monday

Barker, who have been visiting Mrs. Barker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin, Princess street, expect to leave for their home in Moncton on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bruce are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a little stranger at their home, Mt. Pleasant, on Monday, August 10th—a daughter.

Miss Marie Sinclair's many friends in St. John are welcoming her back if only on a brief holiday. Miss Sinclair is a guest of Mrs. Byron Cushing, Queen Square, having arrived yesterday from Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Magee who have been spending a week at Rothesay returned home on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Crosby, Miss Whittaker and Mr. Malcolm Mackay left this week on a fishing trip to Mr. J. A. Pugsley's camp at Gasquet. Mr. Pugsley and party expect to automobile out to the camp today.

Major Hamilton-Gray has been a guest in the city this week with headquarters at the Union Club.

Mr. William Davidson of Moncton's Bank, Moncton, and Miss Davidson of Boston are spending their vacation with their mother, Mrs. W. J. Davidson, Rothesay.

Mrs. E. H. Flood of Barbados arrived in the city on Wednesday and is the guest at Miss Hagerty's, Mount Pleasant.

Hon. William Tugsey arrived in the city this week and is spending a few days at his summer residence, Rothesay.

Mrs. Atherton, Mrs. J. N. Wiley and Mrs. Cooper of Fredericton were guests in the city this week.

Miss Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Willard Smith, is receiving congratulations upon the honors conferred upon her at Oxford. Miss Smith returned home last week.

Mrs. George King, Ottawa, is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. A. Austin.

Mrs. Wilson, sister in law of Mrs. Franklin Stinson, whose guest she was last week, has returned to her home in Bangor.

Mrs. George Robertson, Miss Ethel Robertson, Mrs. J. H. Robertson and Miss Montgomery returned home on Thursday from Smith's Cove, N. S.

Mr. H. W. Belding accompanied by Mrs. Belding left on Thursday evening on a trip to the Pacific Coast.

Miss Stewart Chatham is the guest of Mrs. J. Willard Smith, Hillendale.

Mrs. William H. Harrison arrived in the city on Friday and is a guest at Miss Hagerty's, Mount Pleasant.

Mrs. C. F. Baker who has been ill at Mrs. C. F. Baker's, Fairville, is much improved and is now visiting at Westfield.

Mrs. M. F. White and children are spending a few days at Acamag.

Miss Dixon, Mecklenburg street, who has been spending her vacation at St. Andrews has returned home.

Many friends heard with regret of the death of Frederick C. Mrs. Luke Stewart which occurred in that city on Wednesday. Mrs. Stewart for years was a native of St. John. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved ones.

Mr. L. W. Barker and Miss Phyllis of this town are visiting Miss Marion Irving at Bucoche.

Miss Helen Carson, Moncton, took place at the Manse here Monday morning when Miss Isabel Stohart, youngest daughter of the late James and Mrs. Stohart of Jarvisville, became the wife of John Curwin, Jr., of South Side, Richibucto. Rev. A. Lee performed the ceremony and immediately afterwards the happy couple took the train for Bathurst where they will reside.

In the Catholic church here Monday morning Rev. P. H. H. united in marriage, Miss Catherine Richard of Richibucto Cape and Alexandre Cormier of Richibucto Cape.

Miss Helen Jardine and Miss Loretta Burns, are taking up a subscription in aid of the hospital ship and are meeting with much success.

Miss B. Atkinson of Moncton and the Misses Elizabeth and Ruth Gifford

of this town are visiting Miss Marion Irving at Bucoche.

Miss Helen Carson, Moncton, took place at the Manse here Monday morning when Miss Isabel Stohart, youngest daughter of the late James and Mrs. Stohart of Jarvisville, became the wife of John Curwin, Jr., of South Side, Richibucto. Rev. A. Lee performed the ceremony and immediately afterwards the happy couple took the train for Bathurst where they will reside.

In the Catholic church here Monday morning Rev. P. H. H. united in marriage, Miss Catherine Richard of Richibucto Cape and Alexandre Cormier of Richibucto Cape.

Miss Helen Jardine and Miss Loretta Burns, are taking up a subscription in aid of the hospital ship and are meeting with much success.

Miss B. Atkinson of Moncton and the Misses Elizabeth and Ruth Gifford

of this town are visiting Miss Marion Irving at Bucoche.

Miss Helen Carson, Moncton, took place at the Manse here Monday morning when Miss Isabel Stohart, youngest daughter of the late James and Mrs. Stohart of Jarvisville, became the wife of John Curwin, Jr., of South Side, Richibucto. Rev. A. Lee performed the ceremony and immediately afterwards the happy couple took the train for Bathurst where they will reside.

In the Catholic church here Monday morning Rev. P. H. H. united in marriage, Miss Catherine Richard of Richibucto Cape and Alexandre Cormier of Richibucto Cape.

Miss Helen Jardine and Miss Loretta Burns, are taking up a subscription in aid of the hospital ship and are meeting with much success.

Miss B. Atkinson of Moncton and the Misses Elizabeth and Ruth Gifford

of this town are visiting Miss Marion Irving at Bucoche.

Miss Helen Carson, Moncton, took place at the Manse here Monday morning when Miss Isabel Stohart, youngest daughter of the late James and Mrs. Stohart of Jarvisville, became the wife of John Curwin, Jr., of South Side, Richibucto. Rev. A. Lee performed the ceremony and immediately afterwards the happy couple took the train for Bathurst where they will reside.

In the Catholic church here Monday morning Rev. P. H. H. united in marriage, Miss Catherine Richard of Richibucto Cape and Alexandre Cormier of Richibucto Cape.

Miss Helen Jardine and Miss Loretta Burns, are taking up a subscription in aid of the hospital ship and are meeting with much success.

Miss B. Atkinson of Moncton and the Misses Elizabeth and Ruth Gifford

of this town are visiting Miss Marion Irving at Bucoche.

Miss Helen Carson, Moncton, took place at the Manse here Monday morning when Miss Isabel Stohart, youngest daughter of the late James and Mrs. Stohart of Jarvisville, became the wife of John Curwin, Jr., of South Side, Richibucto. Rev. A. Lee performed the ceremony and immediately afterwards the happy couple took the train for Bathurst where they will reside.

In the Catholic church here Monday morning Rev. P. H. H. united in marriage, Miss Catherine Richard of Richibucto Cape and Alexandre Cormier of Richibucto Cape.

Miss Helen Jardine and Miss Loretta Burns, are taking up a subscription in aid of the hospital ship and are meeting with much success.

Miss B. Atkinson of Moncton and the Misses Elizabeth and Ruth Gifford

of this town are visiting Miss Marion Irving at Bucoche.

Miss Helen Carson, Moncton, took place at the Manse here Monday morning when Miss Isabel Stohart, youngest daughter of the late James and Mrs. Stohart of Jarvisville, became the wife of John Curwin, Jr., of South Side, Richibucto. Rev. A. Lee performed the ceremony and immediately afterwards the happy couple took the train for Bathurst where they will reside.

In the Catholic church here Monday morning Rev. P. H. H. united in marriage, Miss Catherine Richard of Richibucto Cape and Alexandre Cormier of Richibucto Cape.

Miss Helen Jardine and Miss Loretta Burns, are taking up a subscription in aid of the hospital ship and are meeting with much success.

Miss B. Atkinson of Moncton and the Misses Elizabeth and Ruth Gifford

of this town are visiting Miss Marion Irving at Bucoche.

Miss Helen Carson, Moncton, took place at the Manse here Monday morning when Miss Isabel Stohart, youngest daughter of the late James and Mrs. Stohart of Jarvisville, became the wife of John Curwin, Jr., of South Side, Richibucto. Rev. A. Lee performed the ceremony and immediately afterwards the happy couple took the train for Bathurst where they will reside.

In the Catholic church here Monday morning Rev. P. H. H. united in marriage, Miss Catherine Richard of Richibucto Cape and Alexandre Cormier of Richibucto Cape.

Miss Helen Jardine and Miss Loretta Burns, are taking up a subscription in aid of the hospital ship and are meeting with much success.

Miss B. Atkinson of Moncton and the Misses Elizabeth and Ruth Gifford

of this town are visiting Miss Marion Irving at Bucoche.

Miss Helen Carson, Moncton, took place at the Manse here Monday morning when Miss Isabel Stohart, youngest daughter of the late James and Mrs. Stohart of Jarvisville, became the wife of John Curwin, Jr., of South Side, Richibucto. Rev. A. Lee performed the ceremony and immediately afterwards the happy couple took the train for Bathurst where they will reside.

In the Catholic church here Monday morning Rev. P. H. H. united in marriage, Miss Catherine Richard of Richibucto Cape and Alexandre Cormier of Richibucto Cape.

Miss Helen Jardine and Miss Loretta Burns, are taking up a subscription in aid of the hospital ship and are meeting with much success.

Miss B. Atkinson of Moncton and the Misses Elizabeth and Ruth Gifford

of this town are visiting Miss Marion Irving at Bucoche.

Miss Helen Carson, Moncton, took place at the Manse here Monday morning when Miss Isabel Stohart, youngest daughter of the late James and Mrs. Stohart of Jarvisville, became the wife of John Curwin, Jr., of South Side, Richibucto. Rev. A. Lee performed the ceremony and immediately afterwards the happy couple took the train for Bathurst where they will reside.

In the Catholic church here Monday morning Rev. P. H. H. united in marriage, Miss Catherine Richard of Richibucto Cape and Alexandre Cormier of Richibucto Cape.

Miss Helen Jardine and Miss Loretta Burns, are taking up a subscription in aid of the hospital ship and are meeting with much success.

Miss B. Atkinson of Moncton and the Misses Elizabeth and Ruth Gifford

of this town are visiting Miss Marion Irving at Bucoche.

Miss Helen Carson, Moncton, took place at the Manse here Monday morning when Miss Isabel Stohart, youngest daughter of the late James and Mrs. Stohart of Jarvisville, became the wife of John Curwin, Jr., of South Side, Richibucto. Rev. A. Lee performed the ceremony and immediately afterwards the happy couple took the train for Bathurst where they will reside.

In the Catholic church here Monday morning Rev. P. H. H. united in marriage, Miss Catherine Richard of Richibucto Cape and Alexandre Cormier of Richibucto Cape.

Miss Helen Jardine and Miss Loretta Burns, are taking up a subscription in aid of the hospital ship and are meeting with much success.

Miss B. Atkinson of Moncton and the Misses Elizabeth and Ruth Gifford

of this town are visiting Miss Marion Irving at Bucoche.

Miss Helen Carson, Moncton, took place at the Manse here Monday morning when Miss Isabel Stohart, youngest daughter of the late James and Mrs. Stohart of Jarvisville, became the wife of John Curwin, Jr., of South Side, Richibucto. Rev. A. Lee performed the ceremony and immediately afterwards the happy couple took the train for Bathurst where they will reside.

In the Catholic church here Monday morning Rev. P. H. H. united in marriage, Miss Catherine Richard of Richibucto Cape and Alexandre Cormier of Richibucto Cape.

Miss Helen Jardine and Miss Loretta Burns, are taking up a subscription in aid of the hospital ship and are meeting with much success.

Miss B. Atkinson of Moncton and the Misses Elizabeth and Ruth Gifford

of this town are visiting Miss Marion Irving at Bucoche.

Miss Helen Carson, Moncton, took place at the Manse here Monday morning when Miss Isabel Stohart, youngest daughter of the late James and Mrs. Stohart of Jarvisville, became the wife of John Curwin, Jr., of South Side, Richibucto. Rev. A. Lee performed the ceremony and immediately afterwards the happy couple took the train for Bathurst where they will reside.

In the Catholic church here Monday morning Rev. P. H. H. united in marriage, Miss Catherine Richard of Richibucto Cape and Alexandre Cormier of Richibucto Cape.

Miss Helen Jardine and Miss Loretta Burns, are taking up a subscription in aid of the hospital ship and are meeting with much success.

Miss B. Atkinson of Moncton and the Misses Elizabeth and Ruth Gifford

of this town are visiting Miss Marion Irving at Bucoche.

Miss Helen Carson, Moncton, took place at the Manse here Monday morning when Miss Isabel Stohart, youngest daughter of the late James and Mrs. Stohart of Jarvisville, became the wife of John Curwin, Jr., of South Side, Richibucto. Rev. A. Lee performed the ceremony and immediately afterwards the happy couple took the train for Bathurst where they will reside.

In the Catholic church here Monday morning Rev. P. H. H. united in marriage, Miss Catherine Richard of Richibucto Cape and Alexandre Cormier of Richibucto Cape.

Miss Helen Jardine and Miss Loretta Burns, are taking up a subscription in aid of the hospital ship and are meeting with much success.

Miss B. Atkinson of Moncton and the Misses Elizabeth and Ruth Gifford

of this town are visiting Miss Marion Irving at Bucoche.

Miss Helen Carson, Moncton, took place at the Manse here Monday morning when Miss Isabel Stohart, youngest daughter of the late James and Mrs. Stohart of Jarvisville, became the wife of John Curwin, Jr., of South Side, Richibucto. Rev. A. Lee performed the ceremony and immediately afterwards the happy couple took the train for Bathurst where they will reside.

In the Catholic church here Monday morning Rev. P. H. H. united in marriage, Miss Catherine Richard of Richibucto Cape and Alexandre Cormier of Richibucto Cape.

Miss Helen Jardine and Miss Loretta Burns, are taking up a subscription in aid of the hospital ship and are meeting with much success.

Miss B. Atkinson of Moncton and the Misses Elizabeth and Ruth Gifford

of this town are visiting Miss Marion Irving at Bucoche.

Miss Helen Carson, Moncton, took place at the Manse here Monday morning when Miss Isabel Stohart, youngest daughter of the late James and Mrs. Stohart of Jarvisville, became the wife of John Curwin, Jr., of South Side, Richibucto. Rev. A. Lee performed the ceremony and immediately afterwards the happy couple took the train for Bathurst where they will reside.

In the Catholic church here Monday morning Rev. P. H. H. united in marriage, Miss Catherine Richard of Richibucto Cape and Alexandre Cormier of Richibucto Cape.

Miss Helen Jardine and Miss Loretta Burns, are taking up a subscription in aid of the hospital ship and are meeting with much success.

Miss B. Atkinson of Moncton and the Misses Elizabeth and Ruth Gifford

of this town are visiting Miss Marion Irving at Bucoche.

Miss Helen Carson, Moncton, took place at the Manse here Monday morning when Miss Isabel Stohart, youngest daughter of the late James and Mrs. Stohart of Jarvisville, became the wife of John Curwin, Jr., of South Side, Richibucto. Rev. A. Lee performed the ceremony and immediately afterwards the happy couple took the train for Bathurst where they will reside.

In the Catholic church here Monday morning Rev. P. H. H. united in marriage, Miss Catherine Richard of Richibucto Cape and Alexandre Cormier of Richibucto Cape.

Miss Helen Jardine and Miss Loretta Burns, are taking up a subscription in aid of the hospital ship and are meeting with much success.

Miss B. Atkinson of Moncton and the Misses Elizabeth and Ruth Gifford

of this town are visiting Miss Marion Irving at Bucoche.

Miss Helen Carson, Moncton, took place at the Manse here Monday morning when Miss Isabel Stohart, youngest daughter of the late James and Mrs. Stohart of Jarvisville, became the wife of John Curwin, Jr., of South Side, Richibucto. Rev. A. Lee performed the ceremony and immediately afterwards the happy couple took the train for Bathurst where they will reside.

In the Catholic church here Monday morning Rev. P. H. H. united in marriage, Miss Catherine Richard of Richibucto Cape and Alexandre Cormier of Richibucto Cape.

Miss Helen Jardine and Miss Loretta Burns, are taking up a subscription in aid of the hospital ship and are meeting with much success.

Miss B. Atkinson of Moncton and the Misses Elizabeth and Ruth Gifford

of this town are visiting Miss Marion Irving at Bucoche.

Miss Helen Carson, Moncton, took place at the Manse here Monday morning when Miss Isabel Stohart, youngest daughter of the late James and Mrs. Stohart of Jarvisville, became the wife of John Curwin, Jr., of South Side, Richibucto. Rev. A. Lee performed the ceremony and immediately afterwards the happy couple took the train for Bathurst where they will reside.

In the Catholic church here Monday morning Rev. P. H. H. united in marriage, Miss Catherine Richard of Richibucto Cape and Alexandre Cormier of Richibucto Cape.

Miss Helen Jardine and Miss Loretta Burns, are taking up a subscription in aid of the hospital ship and are meeting with much success.

Miss B. Atkinson of Moncton and the Misses Elizabeth and Ruth Gifford

of this town are visiting Miss Marion Irving at Bucoche.

Miss Helen Carson, Moncton, took place at the Manse here Monday morning when Miss Isabel Stohart, youngest daughter of the late James and Mrs. Stohart of Jarvisville, became the wife of John Curwin, Jr., of South Side, Richibucto. Rev. A. Lee performed the ceremony and immediately afterwards the happy couple took the train for Bathurst where they will reside.

In the Catholic church here Monday morning Rev. P. H. H. united in marriage, Miss Catherine Richard of Richibucto Cape and Alexandre Cormier of Richibucto Cape.

Miss Helen Jardine and Miss Loretta Burns, are taking up a subscription in aid of the hospital ship and are meeting with much success.

Miss B. Atkinson of Moncton and the Misses Elizabeth and Ruth Gifford

of this town are visiting Miss Marion Irving at Bucoche.

Miss Helen Carson, Moncton, took place at the Manse here Monday morning when Miss Isabel Stohart, youngest daughter of the late James and Mrs. Stohart of Jarvisville, became the wife of John Curwin, Jr., of South Side, Richibucto. Rev. A. Lee performed the ceremony and immediately afterwards the happy couple took the train for Bathurst where they will reside.

In the Catholic church here Monday morning Rev. P. H. H. united in marriage, Miss Catherine Richard of Richibucto Cape and Alexandre Cormier of Richibucto Cape.

Miss Helen Jardine and Miss Loretta Burns, are taking up a subscription in aid of the hospital ship and are meeting with much success.

Miss B. Atkinson of Moncton and the Misses Elizabeth and Ruth Gifford

of this town are visiting Miss Marion Irving at Bucoche.

Miss Helen Carson, Moncton, took place at the Manse here Monday morning when Miss Isabel Stohart, youngest daughter of the late James and Mrs. Stohart of Jarvisville, became the wife of John Curwin, Jr., of South Side, Richibucto. Rev. A. Lee performed the ceremony and immediately afterwards the happy couple took the train for Bathurst where they will reside.

In the Catholic church here Monday morning Rev. P. H. H. united in marriage, Miss Catherine Richard of Richibucto Cape and Alexandre Cormier of Richibucto Cape.

Miss Helen Jardine and Miss Loretta Burns, are taking up a subscription in aid of the hospital ship and are meeting with much success.

Miss B. Atkinson of Moncton and the Misses Elizabeth and Ruth Gifford

of this town are visiting Miss Marion Irving at Bucoche.

Miss Helen Carson, Moncton, took place at the Manse here Monday morning when Miss Isabel Stohart, youngest daughter of the late James and Mrs. Stohart of Jarvisville, became the wife of John Curwin, Jr., of South Side, Richibucto. Rev. A. Lee performed the ceremony and immediately afterwards the happy couple took the train for Bathurst where they will reside.

In the Catholic church here Monday morning Rev. P. H. H. united in marriage, Miss Catherine Richard of Richibucto Cape and Alexandre Cormier of Richibucto Cape.

Miss Helen Jardine and Miss Loretta Burns, are taking up a subscription in aid of the hospital ship and are meeting with much success.

Miss B. Atkinson of Moncton and the Misses Elizabeth and Ruth Gifford

of this town are visiting Miss Marion Irving at Bucoche.

Miss Helen Carson, Moncton, took place at the Manse here Monday morning when Miss Isabel Stohart, youngest daughter of the late James and Mrs. Stohart of Jarvisville, became the wife of John Curwin, Jr., of South Side, Richibucto. Rev. A. Lee performed the ceremony and immediately afterwards the happy couple took the train for Bathurst where they will reside.

In the Catholic church here Monday morning Rev. P. H. H. united in marriage, Miss Catherine Richard of Richibucto Cape and Alexandre Cormier of Richibucto Cape.

Miss Helen Jardine and Miss Loretta Burns, are taking up a subscription in aid of the hospital ship and are meeting with much success.

Miss B. Atkinson of Moncton and the Misses Elizabeth and Ruth Gifford

of this town are visiting Miss Marion Irving at Bucoche.

Miss Helen Carson, Moncton, took place at the Manse here Monday morning when Miss Isabel Stohart, youngest daughter of the late James and Mrs. Stohart of Jarvisville, became the wife of John Curwin, Jr., of South Side, Richibucto. Rev. A. Lee performed the ceremony and immediately afterwards the happy couple took the train for Bathurst where they will reside.

In the Catholic church here Monday morning Rev. P. H. H. united in marriage, Miss Catherine Richard of Richibucto Cape and Alexandre Cormier of Richibucto Cape.

Miss Helen Jardine and Miss Loretta Burns, are taking up a subscription in aid of the hospital ship and are meeting with much success.

Miss B. Atkinson of