MARCONI COM-
PARES BATTLE
TO WATERLOO

Allies Hold Line To Give Americans Time—Triumph Inevitable, He Declares.

Rome, July 29.—"The fifth year of war dawns full of hope for the Entente," Senator Guglielmo Margoni said to the Associated Press. "We have passed successfully through many severe trials. Other trials may be ahead of us, but in the light of the dogged determination and the undaunted courage shown by the Allied troops in the past, we may look into the future with all confidence and trust."

"America and Italy have many points in common. Above all, they feel that both fought and won their independence. Both have always stood for liberty, for the freedom of nationalities."

"We have now reached the crisis in the war. The Germans well know if they do not obtain a decisive victory this year, they will themselves infallibly be defeated when America has had time to put her full strength into the task. Therefore, the Germans are throwing all their available men against the various points of our defensive line, hoping to break through somewhere and bring about an immediate decision."

"The position at present may be compared with the gigantic Battle of Waterloo, the armies in France, and Italy, representing the English in the famous battle, holding out for all they are worth against the enemy's frenzied attacks in order to afford time for Americans to enter the fight and make victory certain, thus changing our iron determination that the enemy shall not pass into the hands of the enemy. We drive him before us into the heart of his own country."

Prince Calabrese, Mayor of Rome, wrote the following for the Associated Press:
"With redoubled hopes of speedy victories, the world enters the fifth year of the war against the forces of barbarism and evil. Never have we doubted that the cause of right and justice would triumph in the end, but what now makes us confident that this result is indeed inevitable is the thorough participation by America in the war."

The common ideals of justice which have led the great American Republic into the struggle have already been splendidly defined by Ambassador Page, who is so dear to us, when he said:

"Through her age-long history, Italy, our great mother, conferred two gifts on humanity—constant faith in liberty and right, and the discovery of the summer with the new world, having been inspired all along in its history by those principles of law, did not hesitate to confer all her richest blood, her tears, her sweat, her life, her treasures, in order that the priceless inheritance which originated from Rome, should not be overwhelmed and destroyed. Italy's cause is America's cause, just as it is the cause of all humanity, as it is the cause of Roman and Latin civilization."

"Here, Sam!" exclaimed the land-
