Have the Supplying of Emergency Rations Looked Into.

Ottews, June 15—When the house met to the amendment to the amendment to the amendment of Mr. McNeil, which was lost by 30 for to 46 against.

The house divided on Premier Laurier's amendment to strike out clause 19, which was carried by 47 for to 30 against.

On motion of Premier Laurier the charges were referred to the following committee: Messrs. Russell, Britton, Belcourt, Costigan, Monk, Casgrain and Clarke (Toronto). The names of the Conservatives were given by Mr. Foster and was lost by 30 for to 46 against.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier said that he had a ter from Mr. Tarte complaining that servatives were given by Mr. Foster and as soon as Mr. Monk's name was menas soon as Mr. Monk's name was mentioned there were cries of "Resign, Monk." It was not thought possible that he would act, but he made no objections. Talk was general of the indecency of the Conservatives naming the man who preferred the charges to sit in judgment upon them.

At an early hour this morning Mr. McDougall (Cape Breton) brought up a grievance he had against the Intercolonial in regard to rates. correctly translated. The house should erefore wait until the full text of what minister had said was received. In answer to Col. Prior, Sir Wilfrid Laurier said that he had no correspondence about Lieut. Governor McInnes want ng to resign the governorship of British

To Give a Committee.

The house went into supply at 2 a. m and spent a short time on the estimates. Sir Wiffrid Laurier, in rising to repl to Mr. Monk's charges put yesterday respecting the emergency food supplied the soldiers in South Africa, said that h The Century Fund Will was exceedingly sorry that, owing to serious illness in his family, the minister of militia was not able to be in the house today to make his statement; but he (Laurier) did not propose to lay the debate over. They could go on and deal with it, allowing the minister to be heard afterwards. The premier, proceeding, said that there was no charge of fraud in the resolution, yet he did not propose to resolution, yet he did not propose to resolution, yet he did not propose to resolution, yet he does not propose to resolution, the premier of the eastern section was premier section was premier section was premier of $1.20 per day and they demanded $1.50. Graham states his company have sented by Rev. A. Rogers, convenor. He sented by Rev. A. Rogers, convenor he committee on the aged and infirm the company had about size hundred that the company had that the men were dissigned with their rate of pay was a telegram from the manager stating that the company had about size hundred men employed there. The first intimation that the company had about size hundred men em which he took exception was paragraph 19, which he took exception was paragraph 19, which pronounced the minister of militial which pronounced the minister of militial guilty of "gross and culpable negligence," before the evidence was heard. He did not be pronounced think that judgment should be pronounced think that judgment should be pronounced that the militial control of claims upon it. A change is necessary, either to cut down the annuity one-quartitial control of the pronounced terms which the assembly cannot do or to think that judgment should be pronounced either to cut down the annuity one-quartin advance. The other 18 charges would be accepted as they stood and if the evidence they stood and if they stood and if the evidence they stood and if they stood and if the evidence they stood and if they stood an evidence they stood committee could, so report and the house could so determine. He therefore moved that paragraph 19 be struck out; the re-mainder would be referred to the com-

Unfair, as Usual.

Mr. Foster proceeded to deal with what the premier said as if Sir Wilfrid had re-fused a committee of investigation instead of granting one. The member for York (Foster) argued that the minister was guilty of gross negligence, and therefore invested on its remaining in the resolution. inelisted on its remaining in the resolution.
He called the government a devil-we-care administration and then spoke of the troops being supplied with spurious food in their long marches.

Sir Richard Cartyright, in reply, said that he was astonished at anyone suggesting that the manister of militia should be found guilty hefore being heard. The was it possible to conceive that the colleagues of the minister of militia were to be asked that he should be condemned without even being heard? The fact was that Mr. Foster had his speech prepared with a view of the committee being refused. What use was it to refer the matter to a committee if the house was to find the minister guilty before hand. The find the minister guilty before hand. The house was asked to condemn him in advance without evidence and without his heing heard. There was no charge of gross and culpable negligence against the minister, but the judgment is given. As to Mr. Foster's reference to the troops, he (Continuedth), thought he was as much in (Cartwright) thought he was as much interested as any one to see that proper food was sent. (Cheers). The minister of militia was also interested. (Cheers). The committee would be granted at once and it would be time enough to conslemn when the evidence was given. It looked as if the opposition was afraid that

They Could Not Prove Their Charges.

Mr. Monk (Jacques Cartier) could not agree to the clause being struck out. Sir Louis Davies said that if a stranger had been in the galleries and heard th speeches of Messrs. Foster and Monk, he would have thought that an investigation moved and Dr. Moore seconded the adol had been refused by the government. On the contrary a full investigation was desired. The member for York had his speech prepared on a refusal and could not resist delivering it. The charges were all to be referred as framed, not one word was asked was to drop the clause which found the minister guilty. Sir Louis pointed to the indecent spectacle presented by Mr. Foster of condemning in strong terms an absent many strong terms. Mr. Foster of condemning in strong terms an absent man, who was prevented from was moved by Dr. Campbell and seconded being present because of serious illness in his family. Apparently Mr. Foster and Mr. Monk wanted no evidence; they would condemn without that. Still it was known that there were statements i the resolution that were not true.

Mr. Mille (Annapolis) asked why the government went on without Dr. Bor-

Louis Davies-Because there are men small enough on the other side of the house who woold say that we were afraid of this investigation if it were post-poned. Sir Louis said that in this case the government accepted all the charges the government accepted all the charges had been launched at Hamilton last year. No scheme was ever submitted which reservatives when in power not only emas-culated Liberal charges, but refused a committee and sent them to a royal com-

Mr. Quinn (Montreal) replied. Mr. D. C. Fraser described Mr. Quinn's Mr. D. C. Fraser described Mr. Quinn's speech as dramatic, erratic and profane.

Mr. McNeil moved in amendment to the amendment to the effect that clause 19 be changed so as to make it read without any reference to its being based on the preceding paragraphs, but still leaving it as proven that Dr. Borden was guilty of culpable and gross negligence.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier showed that paragraph 19 did not effect the investigation at all and was actually put on there to condemn the minister in advance after

The agent met the Presbyteries of the church in Ontario, Quebec and the Sir Wilfrid Laurier showed that part at graph 19 did not effect the investigation at all and was actually put on there to condemn the minister in advance after the charges had been arranged. He showed that Mr. Monk had given out beforehand that there were eighteen premier quoted all the charges fin his resolution. The clauses in his resolution. The premier quoted all the charges that had been made since the days of the Pacific scandal, and said that no such clause was ever inserted in any of them. He could not accept it. Clarke Wallace Mr. McMullin closed the debate.

Dr. Warden moved a resolution ex-pressing gratitude for success and commending it to prayerful consideration of the church. Dr. Campbell seconded the resolution. One hundred thousand dollars has been given by the children. He expects to get $50,000 from this source, and that it may be so, called on all to turn the thoughts of little ones to work. The ministers have done well. "I would not like," Dr. Campbell said, "to come short of a million. I do not fear we shall."

A conspicuous feature of the assembly was the foreign mission meeting in the evening, when Canadian missionaries who are home on furlough addressed the assembly. The speakers were Rev. If a good, sound egg is placed in strong vinegar, and allowed to remain for twelve hours, it will become soft and elastic. In this state it can be elongated and introduced with water in which a little soda has been dissolved. In a few hours the egg will be restored to its original shape and solidity, when the water may be poured off and the bottle dried.
