America have fixed the following dates for the world to see another game like it, and my wife would not have missed the trip for all we have spent,"

the St. Nicholas rink, New York, March 1.

New York, Dec. 1—The tournament of the Lakewood Golf Club closed today and Walter J. Bavis carried off the honors. As usual the last day's card was a double one with match play, semi-finals and finals for the three chief cup divisions and an all-day handcap in which there were 75 entries. Of the morning's semi-finals the most interesting match was between the Findlay, Douglas and Forrest of the Philadelphia Country Club, the latter forcing the ex-champion to play his best all through the green to win by one up.

and was only won by the hardest kind of playing on the part of the Annapolis cadets. The West Point boys, in the face of defeat, never for a moment weakened and won applause from the multitude of spectators for their gameness. Neither team played giltedged football, but what they lacked in the finer points of the game the elevens more than made up by zeal and earnestness. Their tackling was marked with a reckless abandon that stirred the army and navy officers in the crowd in the stands into wild enthusiasm.

Now York, Dec. 1—Cornell, for the second year in succession, today won the cross country inter-collegiate championship at Morris Park. The Iuhacans had a lead of 26 point at the finish. Yale and Pennsylvania tied for second place; Columbia was fourth and Princeton fifth.

The individual championship was won by Alexander Grant, of Ponnsylvania; A. B. Gallagher, of Cornell, was second by 30 yards; A. J. Sweet, Cornell, was third; A. C. Brown, of Pennsylvania, fourth; D. W. Tranchot, of Yale, fifth, and W. B. Waldron, of Yale, sixth. Now York, Dec. 1-Cornell, for the second

New York, Nov. 30—George Carter, Yale, '87, who played tackle on the team captained by Harry Beecher, came all the way from Honolulu to see the recent Yale-Harvard game at Now Haven, and he brought his wife with him. He was on the road 17 days and before he ges home he will have travelled 11,400 miles, and the trip will have cost him more than $1,000. He skopped over in this city last night on his way back to Honolulu from Now Haven.

Since going to Honolulu to live some years ago he had seen some football games in San Francisco, but not a college champion-ship game.

average attendance of over 70 now and fully 100 in winter. There has been organized also the Glad Tidings temperance society with 30 charter members, among whom are several of the boys of the first contingent. For all the years of the mission's existence, there has been conducted a class in plain sewing, made up of the girls of the neighborhood, many of whom by the tuition given them, have been fitted to take positions as seamstreses.

At present Evangelist Gardner is in charge of the mission and has been since October. Services are held on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings and also on Sunday afternoons. The latest movement is the inauguration of the Saturday night ententianments, the object being to provide a first-class programme of attractiveness sufficient to keep the young peolpe from the streets. The first of these ententainments was held last Saturday night and in the audience were some 250 boys and young men. There will be another entertainment this evening. The mission will soon open a reading room also and this will be at the disposal of the young people afternoons and evenings. Mr. Carter, last night. "When I get back I Dordhester, Nov. 30.—(Special)—The Dorchester, Nov. 30.—(Special)—The case of the Queen vs. William Cushing came up for hearing in the county court here today. Several witnesses were examined. The facts of the case are that one Thomas Belahunt of Harcourt who was returning from Nova Scotia stopped in Monoton awaiting a north bound train. He fell in with Cushing and another chap. They visited several hotels and had considerable of the ardent. The friends separated later when Delahunt was returning to the railway station. assembled at the station and on Castle Hill and gave the men from the premier colony of the empire a rousing reception, cheering lustily at almost every movement. The Queen inspected the officers in the quadrangle of the castle, and expressed her happiness at seeing them. She regretted the heavy casualties that had occurred in their ranks since the war began. Her Majesty thanked her subjects from Canada for the greatt service they had rendered the cause of Great Britain in South Africa and wished them a safe return to otheir homes in the dominion.

Colonel W. D. Otter, who was in command of the Canadians, said his officers and men were proud to render service to their beloved Queen and the empire over which she reigned. They were proud to serve the flag under which they were born, lived and hoped to die. Each officer of the regiment was presented individually to Her Majesty who conversed with them for a moment or two. Pte. B. R. Armstrong, of St. John, New. Brunswick, who before enlisting in "B" squadron Canadian Mounted Riffes, was captain in the Third Regiment Canadian Artiflery, was also presented to the Queen. He lost one of his legs while fighting for the supremacy of Great Britain in South Africa. When time came for the party to return to London an immense throng had gathered and had became so demonstrative at times that they rushed into the ranks, grasped the Canadians by the hands and caused the parade to become disorganized. Others more wiklly enthusiastic endeavored to wrench shoulder straps and regimental letters from the clothing of the men as a memento of the occasion. The police were unable to keep the crowd back and hundreds dashed through the lines into the station and gave the Canadians a wildly exuberant send off, the bands playing and crowds singing Auld Lang Syne.

Great Loss of Life, not work

San Antonio, Tex., Dec. 2.- A terrible killed and about 60 hurt, occurred on the Mexican Central railway on Thursday afternoon between Tamanacha and Symon, 50 miles south of Jumilico. Two trains collided. The first news of the disaster reacha call to Rev. W. C. Vincent, a former pastor, but now of Winnipeg. Accordingly a telegram was sent to him and the church received the folloming message in reply:

"See Nehemiah, 6—3.

(Signed) "W. C. VINCENT."

This message reads as follows:

"And I sent messengers unto them, saying, I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down; why should the work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you?"

The place where the wreck occurred is in a valley at the foot of two immense hills. At the time both trains were running 30 miles an hour. One of the trains had on board a construction crew numbering 150 men. The other was a freight train of 55 empty cars. Three engines and about 40 cars were piled 30 feet high. The American train employes were forced to flee to avoid being lynched. The names of the killed and injured are not obtainable.
