FREDERICTON.

Fredericton, N. B., Jan. 29-(Special)-Argument in the Vancini habeas corpus case for the discharge of Vancini from Dorchester penitentiary took place before the full bench this morning, O. S. Crockett Minese Babbitt, while listening to the very excilient programme which was so suc-cessfully rendered. The numbers were: Piano dust, Misses Babbitt and Hager-man; solo, Mr. Biggs; reading, Dr. Creed; so.o; H. Fradeham; duet, Mrs. Blackmer and Geo. (Adams; reading, Mrs. W. R. Robinson; piano solo, Miss Lounsbury; solo, Mr. Ley; reading, Mrs. J. M. Stone; solo, Miss Louise Burpee; banjo solo, Frank Tabor; address, Rev. J. H. McDon-ald, M. A. for the prisoner; J. H. Barry, K. C., for the crown. The grounds of application were that the act of the dominion parlia-ment under which the magistrate acted was ultra vires, the power to legislate rewas ultra vires, the power to legislate re-specting the constitution and jurisdiction of provincial courts being vested by the B. N.
