

no provision for fellowship corresponding to that of the first Christian Church. In Methodism that want is supplied in the weekly Class-meeting. Forsake not, then, the assembling of yourselves together, as the manner of some is, and so much the more as ye see that day approaching when the Lord's book of remembrance shall bear its testimony, and each one shall be rewarded as his work shall be.

Give your support as far as possible to the Sabbath School. Pre-eminent among those auxiliary agencies by which the Church of Christ is rendered effective for the conversion of the world, is this Institution; yet many a Superintendent is discouraged, many a Sabbath School languishes, and many children are neglected, for lack of that sympathy and support which you are well able to give. In obedience to the Chief Shepherd, who gathereth the lambs in his arms, and carrieth them in his bosom—the nearest place to whose heart, and whose tenderest sympathies are for the little ones—who saith to every loving disciple: “Feed my lambs,” go into the nursery of the Church, there to labor in love and to toil without weariness.

In these days of cheap literature, and of teeming periodicals, so often the vehicle of influences relaxing and polluting to the moral energies, and of scepticism and secularism, with their affected pomp and parade of science and scholarship, it is necessary to exercise much discrimination in the selection of books for family reading. The Book-Room in Halifax will afford you an opportunity of obtaining our Connexional literature, which ought to have a place in the libraries of all Wesleyan families.

Regarding thorough intellectual training, combined with healthy moral culture, as of the highest importance, and the best heritage you can bequeath to your sons and your daughters, we have much pleasure, and the utmost confidence, in recommending to your cordial support, our own Educational Establishment at Mount Allison. We have been favored with the most satisfactory evidences of their efficiency, and believe that
