MONEY IN CATTLE

National demands make it essential that more cattle be raised immediately. "We must go on or go under"—the surest way to go under is by not keeping the Allied armies fed.

The profit of raising cattle is enormous on account of the prices now prevailing and prices will continue high even after the war.

Raise more cattle as a duty to the nation and your bank account. If financial help is required, consult our local manager.

TWO MEN ELECTROCUTED

Bell Telephone Men—George Good and Benjamin Banks

A shocking fatality occurred in Carleton Place last Friday afternoon when two young men in the employ of the Bell Telephone Co. met death very suddenly by electrocution. They were George Good, aged 28, and Benjamin Banks, aged 18, both of Kemptville. A third, John Davidson, also of Kemptville, was thrown over 20 feet by the force of the shock.

The men were working with a gang on Lake avenue, when the wire that was being held by Good, who was in charge of the gang for the day, slackened and crossed a high voltage wire. Good was instantly killed. Banks, another, who had only been in the employ of the company for a short time, ran forward and attempted to release Good's body. He received the full force of the shock and met instant death. Davidson then essayed a rescue and was thrown fully twenty feet. Word was sent to the power house and the power was cut off. Doctors were called and an effort was made to resuscitate the second man, but without success.

Dr. Metcalf, of Almonte, the coroner, was summoned and empaneled a jury, and the bodies were taken to Patterson's undertaking parlors. After viewing the remains an adjournment was made to Monday evening.

Saturday morning an uncle of young Banks motored from Kemptville and the bodies of Banks and Good were sent to Kemptville.

THE INQUEST

The coroner's jury met last night in the council chamber and heard the evidence of several witnesses as to the facts of the accident. At the conclusion they retired for over an hour and on their return presented the following verdict:

Your Jury find that George Good came to his death by the telephone wire he was helping to string and had in his hands, becoming charged in some manner not made clear by the evidence; and that Benjamin Banks came to his death in trying to rescue him without taking proper precaution to insulate himself.

We also find that carelessness was displayed in not wearing gloves, and also that proper precautions were not taken knowing that they were crossing a high power wire.

A Perth Man and the Y.M.C.A.

In a letter from Pte. R. E. Stone, of the 87th Grenadier Guards, who has been in the front line trenches for several months past, he has the following to say, with reference to the much discussed topic at the present time, what is the worth of the Y.M.C.A. to the boys at the front. Here is what he says in a letter to his father, Mr. C. F. Stone:—

"Dear Dad—If you hear anyone running down the Y.M.C.A. you just give them a piece of your mind. What would we be without them? They are our only source of supply for everything we need out here in the front line trenches. 'Jack Canuck' is wrong in every part of his argument, and the boys who write and say so much about it, or those who have returned and talk so much about it, have never been in the forward areas, very much. 'Jack Canuck' said the Y.M.C.A. stayed miles behind the line—a darned lie—for in the last trip the Y.M.C.A. was at least 400 yards from us, and there were four of them in a railway cutting behind us. As to the statement of overcharge; that is another falsehood for we get all we want at exceptionally good prices. For instance cigarettes which cost fifteen cents at home are sold to us at five cents, and the boys out here in the front line trenches are pretty sore at the stuff 'Jack Canuck' has been printing, and at what some of the returned soldiers have been saying. The stuff printed in 'Jack Canuck' is wrong too. If the people only realized it the Y.M.C.A. is the only organization that the troops in the front line trenches look forward to. In fact it is a regular home for us. We have had a good many cups of hot tea from them and never, in any time, have we paid one cent for it. Why, even on the way out, the other day they served us with cold lemonade along the route. Give them the dickens who have anything to say about the Y.M.C.A."—Perth Expositor.

During the month of August Canada spent nearly $20,000,000 for war purposes.

Canada's trade decreased more than 270 million dollars in the five months ending with August as compared with last year.

THE FUEL PROSPECT

The fuel situation as it affects Carleton Place for the approaching winter should be thoroughly understood by every citizen, unless we are to be subjected to serious inconvenience if not actual hardship. The question of obtaining an adequate supply of Coal and Wood for all has occupied the attention of the municipal authorities for many months, and the condition as it now exists must warrant the closest study and co-operation of every fuel user. The allotment of coal which has been made to Carleton Place for delivery between April 1st, 1918, and March 31st, 1919, is 3,200 tons. Nearly one half of this time has passed and little over one third of the allotment has arrived. The total of 3,200 tons would not be sufficient to supply everyone with all the coal they would use under normal conditions, and there is no prospect whatever of getting more than this amount and considerable possibility of receiving less. With these facts in view it is the duty of every citizen to study the matter of securing a supply of wood and using it as long and wherever possible. If every one would obtain and use wood for all purposes until December 15th there would be but slight likelihood of a serious coal shortage. The municipal wood lot will supply in the neighborhood of 1000 cords of wood, which will be available between now and January 1st. Besides this there are dealers who will be able to supply large quantities. Get your orders in now and save the coal you have as long as possible. Other years vague hopes of bounteous supplies of coal being loosened by some fairy hand from the snow banks of the border ports engendered a certain optimism which probably stopped many from rustling after a substitute. Not so this year. We know now that 3200 tons is the maximum to be allowed us, and on top of this we are reckoned the many agencies which tend to retard production and deliveries. It is absolutely up to you to provide a substitute supply of wood and prevent any possible hardship and now is the time to make your plans. R. W. BATES, Mayor.

THE CANADA FOOD BOARD SAYS

Do householders in Canada seek to evade the food regulations? Are the merchants of Canada conniving at the evasion of the food regulations? Let us see about that.

The main objectives of the Canada Food Board is to supply Great Britain and the Allies with vital foods. With this in view food regulations are made, which, if respected by the people of Canada, will enable Canada to keep faith with the Allies on food.

Do the people of Canada want to keep faith with the Allies on food? They do. Are the people of Canada keeping faith with the Allies on food? They are.

To take any other position is to suggest that the people of Canada would rather keep their pre-war food habits than keep faith with the Allies on food. No true Canadian is breaking the regulations of the Canada Food Board for he knows those regulations are made in order that Great Britain and the Allies and the Canadian Army at the front may be properly fed. Who of us will eat what should be conserved for the Canadian Army at the front?

The hearts of the people of Canada are sound and in this war to a finish. Food is a first class munition of war and Canadians so view it. It will be time enough to go in for rations in Canada when the people of Canada refuse to conform to national efforts to conserve food for Great Britain and the Allies, and the Canadian Army at the front. When that time comes a policeman, not a food controller, will be needed.

Progressive Farming

To be informed, and up to date, on the general progress and advancement in farming, probably no better opportunity is afforded than that offered by a study of the annual report of the Dominion Experimental Farms system. This report for the year ending March 31st, 1917, has just made its appearance and consists of 150 pages, detailing the experiments and activities that have taken place at all the farms and stations throughout the country. As every province is represented, some at three or four different points, practically every district of the country is covered. Thus information is given, and knowledge can be obtained, not only of the capabilities in production of every section of the country, but facts regarding results that may be achieved by adopting the latest and most improved methods of farming. The report can be had by every farmer in Canada by addressing the Publications Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

Two Perth Nurses Honored

Quite recently a list was issued by the authorities in England of nurses who had been brought to the notice of the British Secretary of War for valuable service rendered. To be included in this list is a distinct honor and one much valued by those who have been devoting themselves to war and patriotic work. This list is not very extensive which makes the honor all the greater. The only V.A.D. nurse included was Miss Jessie Armstrong of Perth who arrived home a few weeks ago and is enjoying a well earned vacation at the Rideau Lake. Amongst the Nursing Sisters are the names of Miss I. M. Watt, of Perth, who is a daughter of Mr. William Watt, and who is well known to the Perth people. Miss Cornell of Carleton Place is also included in the names. Miss Cornell has a large number of friends in Perth who will be glad to hear of this honor.—Perth Expositor.

NERVOUS TROUBLE

The nerve system is the governing system of the whole body, controlling the heart, lungs, digestion and brain; so it is not surprising that nervous disturbances should cause acute distress. The first stages of nervous debility are noted by irritability and restlessness, in which the victims seem to be oppressed by their nerves. The matter requires immediate attention, for nothing but suitable treatment will prevent a complete breakdown. The victim, however, need not despair for even severe nervous disorders may be cured by improving the condition of the blood. It is because Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually make new, rich blood that this medicine has cured extreme nervous disorders after all other treatment had failed. The nerves thrive on the new blood made by these pills; the appetite improves, digestion is better, sleeplessness no longer troubles the former nerve shattered victim, and life generally takes on a cheerful aspect. Every sufferer from nerve troubles, no matter how slight, should lose no time in giving Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial, thus regaining their old-time health and comfort. You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Eat less Bread

Kitchener was right

when he said—

"Either the civilian population must go short of many things to which it is accustomed in times of peace or our armies must go short of munitions and other things indispensable to them."

NOW the only way we can possibly live up to that obligation is by going without in order that our soldiers may have. For the money we waste is not money at all—it is equipment, clothing, shot and shell that are urgently needed in France. By denying ourselves, therefore, we enable Canada to procure to the fullest extent the materials and labor which she and our Allies need for the successful prosecution of the war. What happens when we fail to save? A pull on labor by the Government in one direction and a pull on labor by the people in the opposite direction.

Hundreds of millions of dollars are of no use to the country if goods and services can be secured only to the extent of eighty millions of dollars. So we must do everything in our power to release both goods and labor for the purposes for which Canada needs them.

WHETHER it be food, coal, wool, steel, leather, labor or transportation, the result in all cases is the same. Whoever competes with the nation by freely satisfying his own desires, selfishly appropriates to his own use that which is so urgently required for our fighting men in France.

For the sake of your country and the boys "over there," spend cautiously. Think of what Lord Kitchener has said, and ask yourself first, "Is this something I really need or can I do without it?"
