JAPAN WORK.

From Miss Wintemute.

JO GAKKO, KOFU, Nov. 19, 1890.

As yet, no new students have been enrolled this term, except one that Miss Lund has taken on, to be trained as a Bible-woman.

Although not able to put up a new building this year, the founders are keeping their eye on the mark. They have just bought the land, 730 tsubo (about three-fifths of an acre), for 500 yen.

The school work is going on day by day, as usual. Haneko san, the normal graduate, is just as earnest a Christian and as faithful a worker as ever, both in and outside of the school. As time goes on, we are finding out more and more what a valuable helper we have in her, and how varied and marked is her ability.

The sewing teacher has asked for baptism. The old lady's
