

THE UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL,

MUNICIPAL AND LOCAL COURTS' GAZETTE.

CONDUCTED BY

W. D. ARDAGH, Barrister-at-Law, and
ROBT. A. HARRISON, B C L., Barrister-at-Law.

IS published monthly in the City of Toronto, at $4 per annum if paid before 1st March in each year; $5 if paid after that period; or five copies to one address for $16 per annum, in advance.

It claims the support of Judges, Lawyers, Officers of Courts, Municipal Officers, Coroners, Magistrates, and all concerned in the administration of the Law, on the following grounds:—

1st. It is the only Legal Periodical published in U. Canada.
2nd. Each number contains Reports of cases—many of which are not to be found in any other publication.

3rd. Chamber Decisions are reported expressly for the Journal.

4th. Each number contains original articles on subjects of professional interest.

5th. Each number contains articles in plain language for the guidance and information of Division Courts, Clerks, Bailiffs and Suitors, and Reports of cases of interest to all whose support is claimed.

6th. Each number contains a Repertory of English decided cases on Points of Practice.

7th. It is the only recognized organ of intercommunication between Lawyers, Officers of Courts, and others concerned in the administration of law.

8th. It is the only recognized medium of advertising on subjects of legal interest.

9th. It circulates largely in every City, Town, Village and Township in Upper Canada.

10th. It exchanges with more than fifty cotemporary periodicals published in England, the United States, Upper and Lower Canada.

11th. It has now reached the seventh year of its existence, and is steadily increasing the sphere of its usefulness.

12th. It has advocated, and will continue to advocate sound and practical improvements in the law and its administration.

Vols. I., II., III., IV., V. and VI. on hand, $24 the six, or $5 for either separately.
