

- Cornwall, post office, etc.—The old furnace which collapsed was replaced and the tower clock was repaired.
- Galt, post office, etc.—The drain was repaired, a heating coil put in and some minor requirements supplied.
- Guelph, post office, etc.—The furnace smoke stack was repaired.
- Hamilton, public building.—General repairs to building, surroundings and water connections were effected.
- Kingston, custom-house.—A granolithic sidewalk was laid along the street fronts.
- do post office. A granolithic sidewalk was laid along the street fronts, the building was repaired and some furniture was supplied.
- Lindsay, post office.—Roof was repaired and furniture, etc., supplied.
- London, custom house.—The old steam boiler was replaced etc.
- do post office.—General repairs and renewals were effected.
- Napanee, public building.—Storm sashes were supplied and minor repairs done.
- Orangeville, post office.—Repairs were made to gas fixtures, etc., and lobby floor was replaced.
- Orillia, public building.—The furnace was repaired and the electric light installed.
- Ottawa, central experimental farm.—A sheep house is in course of construction and necessary repairs, renewals, improvements, replacements, painting, etc., attended to by the departmental staff.
- do dynamo house.—Setting of boiler renewed and grounds improved, etc.
- do eastern block, departmental buildings.—The structure was generally cared for and such conveniences and requirements as were necessary supplied and provided. Usual and ordinary repairs for the preservation of the building were effected.
- do geological museum.—The system of heating was improved and, some electric bells placed in position.
- do government house.—Many additions, alterations, renovations, improvements, and repairs were made to the structure, out-houses, and general surroundings.
- do government printing bureau.—Some changes were made in the heating apparatus, in the water supply and other minor improvements were done and requisites supplied.
- do Langevin block.—Considering the extent of this structure the requirements during the year were not excessive.
- do Major's Hill park.—Fences were repaired, benches painted, etc.
- do observatory, Cliff street.—A sidewalk was laid and the grounds were levelled.
- do parliament buildings.—A number of new fittings and fixtures that gave out were replaced and the usual general cleaning, burnishing, etc., attended to.