beneficial and seeing the competition was worthwhile to the girls,' says Rouse.

Trish McMillan was the Pandas' top competitor with a sixth place overall finish. It was the first time this season she has competed in all four of the events, beam, parallel bars, floor exercise and vault, since suffering an ankle injury last year. Audrey Gee of the Pandas took tenth spot while Noreen Skoreyko had the best individual score with a 7.85 in the

Both the Bears and the Pandas will be in Calgary on January 31 for a dual meet with Calgary. Rouse says, "This will be a good judge of where we stand. We'll be using our rules (the old ones) which we're more used to.
