

THE WAY

Photos and words by Jon Elmer

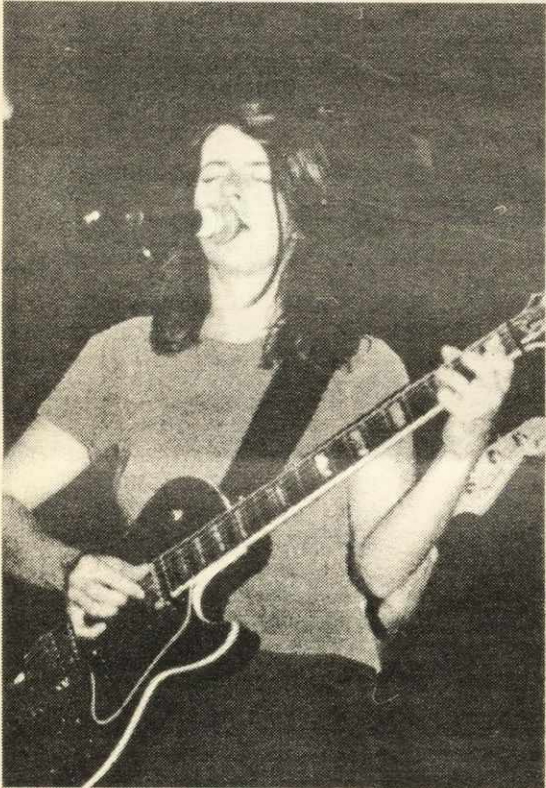

photo by Ross Chapman

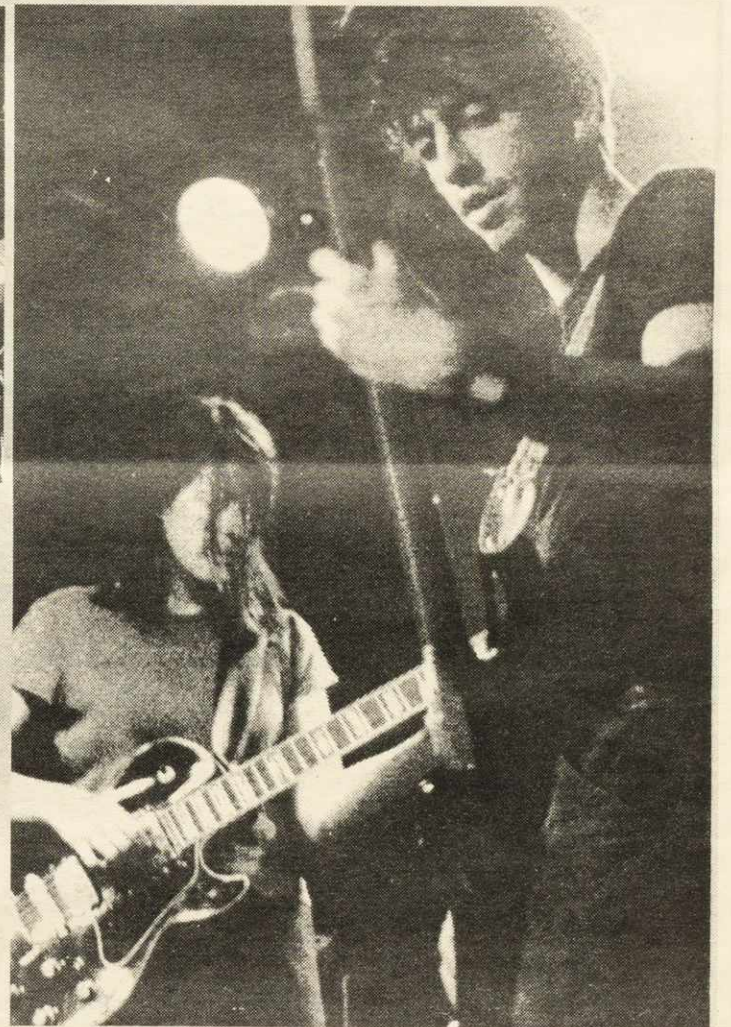

photo by Ross Chapman

With the state of Halifax hip hop today, The Rascals may have been in over their heads when they stormed the Marquee in late November.

With this year's "trim" Halifax Music festival, it was up to Julie Doiron and the Wooden Stars to set the pace. Success.

Cape Breton's Aaron MacDonald (l) and Thunder Bay's Burt Nelson Band (r), showed Hali that you don't have to be big to sound hot.

