

According to the Laws of Patents would give them title by possession as against any but the Crown - and if Macdonald's possession and that of his legal representatives and successors is established since 1844, and the assignment is complete it appears to us that the Department would be justified in recognizing Macdonald as the assignee of the Lease

Geo. W. Burdick
D. M.