Ottawa,
March 5, 1941.

Mr. J. R. Colwill,
Portage la Prairie, Man.

Dear Roy:

Thanks for your letter of 2nd.
I had not seen the "Free Press" issue, editorial from which you sent me. Am now enclosing copy of letter I have written the "Free Press" today
for publication, which I think they will understand.
Have sent it by airmail.

In this connection I also send you copy of a letter I wrote General Clark yesterday, which letter I authorized him by separate communication to publish any place that will accept publication. You can publish this copy if you care to in the "Free Press", or anywhere else that will take it.

I also attach an editorial which appeared in the "Leader-Post," and copy of my reply.

Kindest regards,

Yours truly,

AM/E.
Encl.

Arthur Meighen.
