My dear Gordon:

I appreciate very much your interest in my nephew, and I thank you warmly for the particulars concerning him conveyed in your letter just received.

I am confined to my bed with solatias, but hope to be about again in a few days.

Please excuse the brevity of this note, but it carries with it my very warm appreciation of all your kindness.

With kindest regards,

Yours very sincerely,

The Hon. G. H. Gordon, K.C.,
