

Q. At the time you 'phoned in to your Orderly Room, the doctor had not as yet seen the baby to tell you what was wrong?

A. No, sir.

Questioned by the Court.

Q. What is your occupation in civilian life?

A. I was a truck driver but I had to quit because of my back and I went to the bush and started working in a logging camp.

Q. How far did you go in school?

A. Grade IV, sir.

Q. Did the doctor actually tell you at any time from what the baby was suffering?

A. Well, he wasn't sure, sir. He just said a rash.

Q. Do you know what the baby was suffering from?

A. No, sir.

Q. How long did the rash last?

A. About a week or ten days, sir.

Q. How long was the baby kept in bed?

A. For over seven days.

Q. How long was your wife sick? Was she actually laid up in bed?

A. Well, she has to be up. She didn't spend much time in bed.

Q. Dr. Selby just visited the baby once?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What is the address of your next-of-kin as given to the army?

A. Forest Lawn, sir.

Q. You said you were at Albert Park.

A. It is just about half a mile difference and I get the mail there because my mother-in-law lives there and she gets the mail for us because my wife can't go for it.

Q. Did you tell Major Butterworth where you were when you 'phoned in that Monday morning?

A. I told him I was home.

Q. What is your Pulhens profile?

A. I have no idea, sir.
