

TWENTY-SIXTH WEEK

MONDAY

Try to find something to admire in each person you meet, for surely every one has some redeeming quality.

TUESDAY

Make something of your face:
The face is the key to character.
Blessed is he whose face grows
Mellow and kindly with the years.

WEDNESDAY

Express by your life what you would say in words.

THURSDAY

View things cheerfully; it's a habit that will grow if you cultivate it.

FRIDAY

A laugh is worth a hundred groans any day on the market.

SATURDAY

Contentment is gained by taking things as they come and letting go as they depart.

SUNDAY

The glory of our life is service.
