

has been taken, to the person ordered by the Lady Superintendent to receive them.

2. The Nurse shall, at the next visit, state to the attending Physician or Surgeon such circumstance or circumstances as may tend to throw light on the case, and shall be ready to do the same, if required, at each succeeding visit.

3. In the event of any patient being seized with violent or alarming symptoms, she shall give immediate notice thereof to the House Surgeon or Lady Superintendent.

4. They shall receive no medicines sent to the wards unless labelled and directed.

5. When a death occurs, the Nurse of the ward shall immediately give notice to the House Surgeon.

6. The Nurses shall be diligent in complying with the orders of the Medical Officers and Lady Superintendent, and they shall behave with tenderness to the patients.

7. They shall never, on any account, allow anything to be brought into the wards, or given to the patients, except that which is ordered.

8. They shall give immediate notice to the House Surgeon, or, in his absence, to the Lady Superintendent, when any patient or patients shall have violated any of the By-laws of the Hospital.

9. Nurses are to insist on the delivery to them, by public patients whom they receive, of all moneys, jewellery and other valuables which they may find in their clothing ; of these a list is to be made on the envelope in which such valuables are enclosed, said
