

The Shakespeare Hotel

CORNER OF KING AND YORK STS,

T O R O N T O .

This beautifully fitted Hotel having recently been opened by Mr. James Powell, who has spared no expense in fitting up every department in the most luxurious manner, must necessarily commend itself to the travelling public.

It is one of the most centrally located Hotels in the City, and within a few minutes of all Railroad Stations, and landing Stages.

The cuisine has had especial supervision, and everything is served in the most recherche style.

TERMS MODERATE.